The Civil Procedure Rules 1998

PART 12

DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Procedure for deciding an amount or value

12.7.—(1) This rule applies where the claimant obtains a default judgment on the filing of a request under rule 12.4(1) and judgment is for—

- (a) an amount of money to be decided by the court;
- (b) the value of goods to be decided by the court; or
- (c) an amount of interest to be decided by the court.

(2) Where the court enters judgment it will—

- (a) give any directions it considers appropriate; and
- (b) if it considers it appropriate, allocate the case.
