Regulations 7 and 8 set out the duties, liabilities and privileges of registered mobile operators.

Regulations 9 to 12 set out when a registered mobile operator must have a fiscal representative, and the duties, liabilities and privileges of fiscal representatives.

Regulations 13 to 17 control the treatment of merchandise on board ships and aircraft making journeys between the UK and other member States.

Regulations 21 and 22 regulate accounting for duty and the arrangements for reimbursement.

Regulations 23 to 25 provide for simplified procedures to apply to certain voyages and flights. Where simplified procedures are available, registered mobile operators may use them providing they give notice of their intention.

Regulation 26 provides for forfeiture of excise goods where there is a breach of these Regulations or of any condition or restriction they impose.

Regulation 27 makes a consequential amendment to the Excise Goods (Holding, Movement, Warehousing and REDS) Regulations 1992.
