in each case as amended, modified, adapted, extended, supplemented, replaced or consolidated by any subsequent enactment or by any instrument other than one made for the purpose only of giving effect to the provisions of any agreement applying to one of the two territories with the government of any country outside the United Kingdom providing for reciprocity in matters relating to payments for purposes similar or comparable to the purposes of those schemes of child benefit;”.

2. In Article 1(1), in the definition of "the Residence and Persons Abroad Regulations"—

- (a) for the words "regulations made under the Act" there shall be substituted the words "Great Britain", and

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations give effect in Great Britain to reciprocal arrangements relating to child benefit that have been made between the Secretary of State for Social Security, with the consent of the Treasury, of the one part and the Department of Health and Social Services for Northern Ireland, with the consent of the Department of Finance and Personnel, of the other part.
