The Education (New Schools) (Wales) Regulations 1999

PART VII

GENERAL CONDUCT OF NEW SCHOOLS

Reports and information

60.—(1) The temporary governing body of a proposed school shall provide the local education authority with such reports in connection with the discharge of their functions as the authority may require (either on a regular basis or from time to time) for the purposes of the exercise of any of their functions.

(2) The head teacher of a proposed school shall provide the temporary governing body or (as the case may be) the local education authority with such reports in connection with the discharge of his functions as that body or the authority may require (either on a regular basis or from time to time) for the purposes of the exercise of any of their functions.

- (3) Where a requirement under paragraph (2) is imposed on the head teacher by the authority—
- (a) the authority shall notify the temporary governing body of that requirement; and
 - (b) the head teacher shall give the temporary governing body a copy of any report made by him in complying with it.
