- (b) paragraph (f) (requirement to list for a corporate director its other directorships), and
- (c) paragraph (i) (requirement to state whether elective resolutions under sections 252 or 366A of that Act are in force).

13th August 1999

Kim Howells,
Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Competition and Consumer Affairs,
Department of Trade and Industry

(1) 1985 c. 6. Sections 363 to 365 of the Companies Act 1985 were substituted by section 139(1) of the Companies Act 1989 (c. 40).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations repeal, with effect from 13th September 1999, certain provisions in section 364 of the Companies Act 1985 (which specifies information to be included in the annual return delivered to the registrar of companies under section 363 of the Act). The Regulations repeal the provisions requiring companies to list the other directorships and former names of individual directors, to list the other directorships of corporate directors, and requiring private companies to state whether resolutions are in force enabling the company to dispense with the laying of accounts and reports before the company in general meeting, or to dispense with the holding of annual general meetings.

A Regulatory Impact Assessment in respect of these Regulations is available and a copy can be obtained from Companies House, Policy and Planning Directorate, First Floor, Crown Way, Cardiff CF14 3UZ. A copy has also been placed in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament.
