
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1999 No. 584

The National Minimum Wage Regulations 1999

Interpretation

The meaning of unmeasured work

6. In these Regulations “unmeasured work” means any other work that is not time work, salaried hours work or output work including, in particular, work in respect of which there are no specified hours and the worker is required to work when needed or when work is available.