JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Commission Areas (Thames Valley) Order 2000

Made - - - - -	22nd May 2000
Laid before Parliament	26th May 2000
Coming into force	1st July 2000

Whereas the Thames Valley magistrates’ courts committee have, in pursuance of subsection (1) of section 32A of the Justices of the Peace Act 1997(a), submitted to the Lord Chancellor written proposals for the alteration of commission areas including parts of the area for which they are the committee:

And whereas by subsections (4) and (5) of the said section it is provided that any order made by the Lord Chancellor under section 1(2) of the said Act shall be taken to implement such proposals if it does so either without changes or only with changes which do not appear to him to be important and that any such order may contain such consequential and transitional provisions as appear to him to be necessary or expedient:

And whereas the provisions of subsection (2) of section 32A of the Act of 1997 have been complied with:

Now, therefore, the Lord Chancellor, in exercise of powers conferred on him by the said section 1(2), makes the following Order:

1. This Order may be cited as the Commission Areas (Thames Valley) Order 2000 and shall come into force on 1st July 2000.

“area” means a commission area including any part of the Thames Valley committee area;

“abolished area” means an area abolished by article 3(a) below;

“new area” means the area constituted by article 3(b) below;

any reference to a justice for an area shall be construed as a reference to a person who holds the commission of the peace for that area.

(a) the entries for Berkshire, Buckinghamshire and Oxfordshire shall be omitted;
