2000 No. 1816

The Pitcairn (Appeals to Privy Council) Order 2000

Conditional leave to appeal

5. Leave to appeal under article 3 of this Order shall, in the first instance, be granted by the Court only—

- (a) upon condition of the appellant, within a period to be fixed by the Court but not exceeding 90 days from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security to the satisfaction of the Court in a sum not exceeding £1,000 for the due prosecution of the appeal and for the payment of all such costs as may become payable by the applicant in the event of his not obtaining an order granting final leave to appeal, or of the appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of the Judicial Committee ordering the appellant to pay costs of the appeal (as the case may be); and
- (b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purposes of procuring the preparation of the record and the dispatch thereof to the Registrar of the Privy Council as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may impose.
