

APPENDIX B

Consultation with English Heritage, any National Amenity Society and the Local Planning Authority

Documents to accompany consultation

6.1 The particulars given under paragraph 6(a) above should be sufficiently clear for a comparison to be made between the building in its existing state and in its future state if the works are permitted to be carried out so as to enable an assessment to be made of the likely impact of the works on the listed building.