

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision for the administration of oaths to members of the summary appeal court established under section 52FF of the Naval Discipline Act 1957 (as inserted by the Armed Forces Discipline Act 2000). The Order specifies the person by whom the oath is to be administered, and the form and manner in which the oath is to be administered.