2000 No. 253

The National Assembly for Wales
(Transfer of Functions) Order 2000

Miscellaneous Provisions

6.—(1) This article applies to any inquiry the procedures of which are prescribed by the Rules specified in Schedule 4 to this Order.

(2) In relation to any inquiry to which this article applies, references in each of the said Rules to “government policy” shall have effect as if they included reference to policy adopted or formulated by the Assembly.

(3) In relation to any inquiry to which this article applies and which is held or caused to be held other than by the Assembly, references to a government department shall have effect as if they included reference to the Assembly.

(4) In the preceding paragraph (3), reference to an inquiry does not include an inquiry held by an inspector where jurisdiction to determine the appeal to which that inquiry relates has been transferred to the inspector by the Assembly.
