POLICE, ENGLAND AND WALES

The NCS Service Authority (Budget Statement) Order 2001

Made	- - - -	5th July 2001
Laid before Parliament		11th July 2001
Coming into force	- -	1st August 2001

In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 61A(3)(f) and (4) of the Police Act 1997⁽¹⁾, the Secretary of State hereby makes the following Order:

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the NCS Service Authority (Budget Statement) Order 2001 and shall come into force on 1st August 2001.

Interpretation

2. In this Order:

- (a) “the 1997 Act” means the Police Act 1997;
- (b) “the Authority” means the NCS Service Authority;
- (c) “NCS” means the National Crime Squad; and
- (d) “operating costs” includes any remuneration, including pensions, payable to and in respect of the Authority’s officers and employees, the cost of any accommodation occupied by the Authority and the cost of any services provided to the Authority.

Preparation of budget statement

3.—(1) In preparing a budget statement for a financial year, the Authority shall, in addition to the matters set out in section 61A(3)(a) to (e) of the 1997 Act, also take account of—

- (a) the expenditure the Authority estimates it will incur in the year in performing its functions (“operating costs”); and
- (b) the estimated expenses and allowances payable to the Authority members for the year.

(1) 1997 c. 50. Section 61A was inserted by section 113 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 (c. 16).

Contents of budget statement

4.—(1) A budget statement submitted under section 61A(1) of the 1997 Act for a financial year shall contain the following information—

- (a) a summary of the expenditure which the Director General of NCS estimates will be incurred in connection with NCS in the year;
- (b) any income which it is estimated will be received in that year, whether by way of charges imposed by the Authority under section 64 of the 1997 Act, or otherwise;
- (c) the financial reserves of the Authority and the reserves which it estimates it will be appropriate to raise in the year for meeting its estimated future expenditure;
- (d) the current and proposed level of borrowing of the Authority;
- (e) a record of the views expressed by all members of the Authority on the budget statement;
- (f) the efficiency savings which it is estimated will be made in the year;
- (g) the Authority's estimate of its operating costs in the year;
- (h) the Authority's estimate of the expenses and allowances payable to its members for the year; and
- (i) any underspend or overspend estimated for the current year.

(2) In addition to the information required by paragraph (1) above to be included in the budget statement, the statement may contain any other information which the Authority believes would assist the Secretary of State in determining the amount of the grant to be made to the Authority under section 62 of the 1997 Act⁽²⁾.

5th July 2001

Bob Ainsworth
Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State Home
Office

(2) Section 62 is substituted by section 114 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order prescribes additional matters which the NCS (National Crime Squad) Service Authority must take into account in preparing a budget statement of the amount of grant it estimates it will require for the next financial year for submission to the Secretary of State under section 61A of the Police Act 1997. It also prescribes the information which the budget statement must contain.
