EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order declares the Partnership Agreement between the Members of the African, Caribbean and Pacific Group of States and the European Community and its Member States (The Cotonou Agreement), signed on 23 June 2000, and the related Internal Financing Agreement, to be Community Treaties as defined in section 1(2) of the European Communities Act 1972. Like its predecessor, the Fourth ACP-EEC Convention of Lome, the Cotonou Agreement covers trade, political and development co-operation. Its central objective is the reduction and eventual eradication of poverty. It contains, inter alia, a commitment to human rights, democratic principles, the rule of law and good governance, outlines new WTO-compatible frameworks for trade, including the establishment of regional economic partnerships, confirms the EU commitment to provide duty free market access for some products from Least Developed Countries, and sets out a framework for long-term development assistance. The principal effect of declaring these agreements to be Community Treaties as so defined is to bring into play, in relation to them, the provisions of section 2 of the European Communities Act 1972 which provide for the implementation of treaties so specified.
