

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 3

Statements of case

59.10 The court may at any time before or after issue of the claim form order a mercantile claim to proceed without the filing or service of statements of case.