The activity

[^{F1}Providing basic advice on stakeholder products

52B.—(1) Providing basic advice to a retail consumer on a stakeholder product is a specified kind of activity.

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a person (“P”) provides basic advice when—
- (a) he asks a retail consumer questions to enable him to assess whether a stakeholder product is appropriate for that consumer; and
 - (b) relying on the information provided by the retail consumer P assesses that a stakeholder product is appropriate for the retail consumer and—
 - (i) describes that product to that consumer;
 - (ii) gives a recommendation of that product to that consumer; and
 - (c) the retail consumer has indicated to P that he has understood the description and the recommendation in sub-paragraph (b).

- (3) In this article—

“retail consumer” means any person who is advised by P on the merits of opening or buying a stakeholder product in the course of a business carried on by P and who does not receive the advice in the course of a business carried on by him;

“stakeholder product” means—

- (a) an account which qualifies as a stakeholder child trust fund within the meaning given by the Child Trust Funds Regulations 2004;
- (b) [^{F2}rights under a stakeholder pension scheme;]

“relevant stakeholder pension scheme” means a stakeholder pension scheme within the meaning given by section 1 of the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 and which is subject to lifestyleing, and

“lifestyleing” means the process, applied from a date at least five years before the member’s retirement date, or, in the case of a member who joins the scheme less than five years before his retirement date, immediately after he becomes a member, and continuing until the member’s
