- (a) where the interview arose in connection with a claim for a [^{F21}relevant benefit], that the person to whom the claim relates is to be regarded as not having made a claim for a [^{F21}relevant benefit];
- (b) where an interview which arose in connection with a claim for a [^{F21}relevant benefit] was deferred and benefit became payable by virtue of regulation 7(3), that the person's entitlement to that benefit shall terminate from the first day of the next benefit week following the date on which the relevant decision was made;
- (c) where the claimant has an award of benefit and the requirement for the interview arose under regulation 4 [^{F22}or by virtue of the claimant falling within regulation 3(1)(a)(ii)], the claimant's benefit shall be reduced as from the first day of the next benefit week following the day the relevant decision was made, by a sum equal (but subject to paragraphs (3) and (4)) to 20 per cent. of the amount applicable on the date the deduction commences in respect of a single claimant for income support aged not less than 25.

(3) Benefit reduced in accordance with paragraph (2)(c) shall not be reduced below ten pence per week.

(4) Where two or more specified benefits are in payment to a claimant, a deduction made in accordance with this regulation shall be applied, except in a case to which paragraph (5) applies, to the specified benefits in the following order of priority—

- (a) income support;
- (b) incapacity benefit;
- ^{F23}(c)
- ^{F23}(d)
- (e) severe disablement allowance.

(5) Where the amount of the reduction is greater than some (but not all) of the specified benefits listed in paragraph (4), the reduction shall be made against the first benefit in that list which is the same as, or greater than, the amount of the reduction.

(6) For the purpose of determining whether a specified benefit is the same as, or greater than, the amount of the reduction for the purposes of paragraph (5), ten pence shall be added to the amount of the reduction.

(7) In a case where the whole of the reduction cannot be applied against any one specified benefit because no one benefit is the same as, or greater than, the amount of the reduction, the reduction shall be applied against the first benefit in payment in the list of priorities at paragraph (4) and so on against each benefit in turn until the whole of the reduction is exhausted or, if this is not possible, the whole of the specified benefits are exhausted, subject in each case to ten pence remaining in payment.

(8) Where the rate of any specified benefit payable to a claimant changes, the rules set out above for a reduction in the benefit payable shall be applied to the new rates and any adjustments to the benefits against which the reductions are made shall take effect from the beginning of the first benefit week to commence for that claimant following the change.

(9) Where a claimant whose benefit has been reduced in accordance with this regulation subsequently takes part in an interview, the reduction shall cease to have effect on the first day of the benefit week in which the requirement to take part in an interview was met.

(10) For the avoidance of doubt, a person who is regarded as not having made a claim for any benefit because he failed to take part in an interview shall be required to make a new claim in order to establish entitlement to any specified benefit.

(11) For the purposes of determining the amount of any benefit payable, a claimant shall be treated as receiving the amount of any specified benefit which would have been payable but for a reduction made in accordance with this regulation.

(12) The consequences set out in this regulation shall not apply in the case of a person who brings new facts to the notice of the Secretary of State within one month of the date on which the decision was notified and—

- (a) those facts could not reasonably have been brought to the Secretary of State’s notice within five working days of the day on which the interview was to take place; and
- (b) those facts show that he had good cause for his failure to take part in the interview.

(13) In paragraphs (2) and (12), the “decision” means the decision that the person failed without good cause to take part in an interview.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations impose a requirement on persons who claim, or are entitled to, certain benefits (specified in regulation 2(1)) to take part in a work-focused interview (“an interview”).

Regulation 3 specifies those persons who are required to take part in an interview when claiming a specified benefit and regulation 4 prescribes when persons are required to take part in an interview as a condition of their continuing entitlement to those benefits.

Regulation 5 prescribes the time when the interview is to take place. Regulation 6 provides that the requirement to take part in an interview can be waived where an interview would not be of assistance to the person or it would not be appropriate in the circumstances of the case and regulation 7 specifies that an interview can be deferred. Regulation 8 prescribes circumstances when a person is exempted from the requirement to take part in an interview. Regulation 9 specifies when a requirement to take part in two or more interviews is satisfied by the person taking part in a single interview.

Regulation 10 provides for the person to be advised of the time and place of the interview and provides that an interview can take place in the person’s home if the interviewer considers that it would be unreasonable to require that person to attend elsewhere.

Regulation 11 prescribes circumstances as to when a person is to be regarded as having taken part in an interview and regulation 12 details the consequences of a failure to take part in an interview. Regulation 13 specifies the circumstances where those consequences do not apply and regulation 14 specifies the matters to be taken into account in determining whether a person had good cause for his failure to take part in an interview.

Regulation 15 provides that a decision that a person has failed to take part in an interview without good cause can be appealed to an appeal tribunal under section 12 of the Social Security Act 1998 (c.14).

Regulation 16 and Schedule 1 revoke previous regulations, with savings and a transitional provision, which imposed requirements on persons in certain areas to take part in interviews.

Regulation 17 and Schedule 2 make amendments to other regulations which are consequential both on these Regulations and the revocation and transitional effect of the regulations referred to in Schedule 1.

These Regulations do not impose a charge on business.
