Time when interview is to take place

5. An officer shall arrange for an interview to take place as soon as reasonably practicable after—

- (a) the claim is made;
- (b) the requirement under regulation 4(1) arises; or,
- (c) in a case where regulation 7(1) applies, the time when that requirement is to apply by virtue of regulation 7(2).

Waiver of requirement to take part in an interview

6.—(1) A requirement imposed by these Regulations to take part in an interview shall not apply where an officer determines that an interview would not—

- (a) be of assistance to the person concerned; or
- (b) be appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) A person in relation to whom a requirement to take part in an interview has been waived under paragraph (1) shall be treated for the purposes of—

- (a) regulation 3 or 4; and
- (b) any claim for, or entitlement to, a specified benefit,

as having complied with that requirement.

Deferment of requirement to take part in an interview

7.—(1) An officer may determine, in the case of any particular person, that the requirement to take part in an interview shall be deferred at the time the claim is made or the requirement to take part in an interview arises or applies because an interview would not at that time—

- (a) be of assistance to that person; or
- (b) be appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) Where the officer determines in accordance with paragraph (1) that the requirement to take part in an interview shall be deferred, he shall also determine when that determination is made, the time when the requirement to take part in an interview is to apply in the person's case.

(3) Where a requirement to take part in an interview has been deferred in accordance with paragraph (1), then until—

- (a) a determination is made under regulation 6(1);
- (b) the person takes part in an interview; or
- (c) a relevant decision has been made in relation to that person in accordance with regulation 11(4), that person shall be treated for the purposes of any claim for, or entitlement to, a specified benefit as having complied with that requirement.

Exemptions

8.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), persons who, on the day on which the claim for a specified benefit is made or the requirement to take part in an interview under regulation 4 or 7(2) arises or applies—

(14) 1995 c. 18; the definition of "joint-claim couple" was inserted by the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999, section 59 and Schedule 7, paragraph 2(4)(b).

- (b) a member of that couple is a person to whom regulation 3D(1)(c) of the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations 1996⁽¹⁵⁾ (further circumstances in which a joint-claim couple may be entitled to a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance) applies.

Claims for two or more specified benefits

9. A person who would otherwise be required under these Regulations to take part in interviews relating to more than one specified benefit—

- (a) is only required to take part in one interview; and
(b) that interview counts for the purposes of all those benefits.

The interview

10.—(1) The officer shall inform a person who is required to take part in an interview of the place and time of the interview.

(2) The officer may determine that an interview is to take place in the person's home where it would, in his opinion, be unreasonable to expect that person to attend elsewhere because that person's personal circumstances are such that attending elsewhere would cause him undue inconvenience or endanger his health.

Taking part in an interview

11.—(1) The officer shall determine whether a person has taken part in an interview.

(2) A person shall be regarded as having taken part in an interview if and only if—

- (a) he attends for the interview at the place and time notified to him by the officer; and
(b) he provides answers (where asked) to questions and appropriate information about—
(i) the level to which he has pursued any educational qualifications;
(ii) his employment history;
(iii) any vocational training he has undertaken;
(iv) any skills he has acquired which fit him for employment;
(v) any paid or unpaid employment he is engaged in;
(vi) any medical condition which, in his opinion, puts him at a disadvantage in obtaining employment; and
(vii) any caring or childcare responsibilities he has.

(3) A person who has not attained the age of 18 shall also be regarded as having taken part in an interview if he attends an interview with the Careers Service or with the Connexions Service at the place and time notified to him by an officer.

(4) Where an officer determines that a person has failed to take part in an interview and good cause has not been shown for that failure within five working days of the day on which the interview was to take place, a relevant decision shall be made for the purposes of section 2B of the Social Security Administration Act 1992⁽¹⁶⁾.

Failure to take part in an interview

12.—(1) A person in respect of whom a relevant decision has been made in accordance with regulation 11(4) shall, subject to paragraph (12), suffer the consequences set out below.

⁽¹⁵⁾ S.I. 1996/207; regulation 3D was inserted by S.I. 2000/1978 and amended by S.I. 2001/518.

⁽¹⁶⁾ 1992 c. 5; section 2B was inserted by the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999, section 57.

- (2) Those consequences are—
- (a) where the interview arose in connection with a claim for a specified benefit, that the person to whom the claim relates is to be regarded as not having made a claim for a specified benefit;
 - (b) where an interview which arose in connection with a claim for a specified benefit was deferred and benefit became payable by virtue of regulation 7(3), that the person's entitlement to that benefit shall terminate from the first day of the next benefit week following the date on which the relevant decision was made;
 - (c) where the claimant has an award of benefit and the requirement for the interview arose under regulation 4, the claimant's benefit shall be reduced as from the first day of the next benefit week following the day the relevant decision was made, by a sum equal (but subject to paragraphs (3) and (4)) to 20 per cent. of the amount applicable on the date the deduction commences in respect of a single claimant for income support aged not less than 25.
- (3) Benefit reduced in accordance with paragraph (2)(c) shall not be reduced below ten pence per week.
- (4) Where two or more specified benefits are in payment to a claimant, a deduction made in accordance with this regulation shall be applied, except in a case to which paragraph (5) applies, to the specified benefits in the following order of priority—
- (a) income support;
 - (b) incapacity benefit;
 - (c) any bereavement benefit;
 - (d) invalid care allowance;
 - (e) severe disablement allowance.
- (5) Where the amount of the reduction is greater than some (but not all) of the specified benefits listed in paragraph (4), the reduction shall be made against the first benefit in that list which is the same as, or greater than, the amount of the reduction.
- (6) For the purpose of determining whether a specified benefit is the same as, or greater than, the amount of the reduction for the purposes of paragraph (5), ten pence shall be added to the amount of the reduction.
- (7) In a case where the whole of the reduction cannot be applied against any one specified benefit because no one benefit is the same as, or greater than, the amount of the reduction, the reduction shall be applied against the first benefit in payment in the list of priorities at paragraph (4) and so on against each benefit in turn until the whole of the reduction is exhausted or, if this is not possible, the whole of the specified benefits are exhausted, subject in each case to ten pence remaining in payment.
- (8) Where the rate of any specified benefit payable to a claimant changes, the rules set out above for a reduction in the benefit payable shall be applied to the new rates and any adjustments to the benefits against which the reductions are made shall take effect from the beginning of the first benefit week to commence for that claimant following the change.
- (9) Where a claimant whose benefit has been reduced in accordance with this regulation subsequently takes part in an interview, the reduction shall cease to have effect on the first day of the benefit week in which the requirement to take part in an interview was met.
- (10) For the avoidance of doubt, a person who is regarded as not having made a claim for any benefit because he failed to take part in an interview shall be required to make a new claim in order to establish entitlement to any specified benefit.
- (11) For the purposes of determining the amount of any benefit payable, a claimant shall be treated as receiving the amount of any specified benefit which would have been payable but for a reduction made in accordance with this regulation.

(12) The consequences set out in this regulation shall not apply in the case of a person who brings new facts to the notice of the Secretary of State within one month of the date on which the decision was notified and—

- (a) those facts could not reasonably have been brought to the Secretary of State's notice within five working days of the day on which the interview was to take place; and
- (b) those facts show that he had good cause for his failure to take part in the interview.

(13) In paragraphs (2) and (12), the “decision” means the decision that the person failed without good cause to take part in an interview.

Circumstances where regulation 12 does not apply

13. The consequences of a failure to take part in an interview set out in regulation 12 shall not apply where—

- (a) he is no longer required to take part in an interview as a condition for continuing to be entitled to the full amount of benefit which is payable apart from these Regulations; or
- (b) the person attains the age of 60.

Good cause

14. Matters to be taken into account in determining whether a person has shown good cause for his failure to take part in an interview include—

- (a) that the person misunderstood the requirement to take part in the interview due to any learning, language or literacy difficulties of the person or any misleading information given to the person by the officer;
- (b) that the person was attending a medical or dental appointment, or accompanying a person for whom the claimant has caring responsibilities to such an appointment, and that it would have been unreasonable, in the circumstances, to rearrange the appointment;
- (c) that the person had difficulties with his normal mode of transport and that no reasonable alternative was available;
- (d) that the established customs and practices of the religion to which the person belongs prevented him attending on that day or at that time;
- (e) that the person was attending an interview with an employer with a view to obtaining employment;
- (f) that the person was actually pursuing employment opportunities as a self-employed earner;
- (g) that the person or a dependant of his or a person for whom he provides care suffered an accident, sudden illness or relapse of a chronic condition;
- (h) that he was attending the funeral of a close friend or relative on the day fixed for the interview;
- (i) that a disability from which the person suffers made it impracticable for him to attend at the time fixed for the interview.

Appeals

15.—(1) This regulation applies to any relevant decision made under regulation 11(4) or any decision under section 10 of the 1998 Act superseding such a decision.

(2) This regulation applies whether the decision is as originally made or as revised under section 9 of the 1998 Act.

(3) In the case of a decision to which this regulation applies, the person in respect of whom the decision was made shall have a right of appeal under section 12 of the 1998 Act to an appeal tribunal.

Revocations and transitional provision

16.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Social Security (Work-focused Interviews) Regulations 2000⁽¹⁷⁾ (“the 2000 Regulations”) and the Social Security (Jobcentre Plus Interviews) Regulations 2001⁽¹⁸⁾ (“the 2001 Regulations”) are hereby revoked to the extent specified in Schedule 1.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), both the 2000 Regulations (except for regulations 4, 5 and 12(2)(a) and (b)) and the 2001 Regulations (except for regulations 3 and 11(2)(a) and (b)) shall continue to apply as if these Regulations had not come into force for the period specified in paragraph (3) in the case of a person who, on the day before the day on which these Regulations come into force, is both a relevant person and entitled to a specified benefit for the purposes of those Regulations.

(3) The period specified for the purposes of paragraph (2) shall be the period beginning on the day on which these Regulations come to force and ending on the day on which the person—

- (a) ceases to be a relevant person for the purposes of the 2000 Regulations or, as the case may be, the 2001 Regulations;
- (b) is not entitled to any specified benefit for the purposes of those Regulations; or
- (c) attains the age of 60,

whichever shall first occur.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations impose a requirement on persons who claim, or are entitled to, certain benefits (specified in regulation 2(1)) to take part in a work-focused interview (“an interview”).

Regulation 3 specifies those persons who are required to take part in an interview when claiming a specified benefit and regulation 4 prescribes when persons are required to take part in an interview as a condition of their continuing entitlement to those benefits.

Regulation 5 prescribes the time when the interview is to take place. Regulation 6 provides that the requirement to take part in an interview can be waived where an interview would not be of assistance to the person or it would not be appropriate in the circumstances of the case and regulation 7 specifies that an interview can be deferred. Regulation 8 prescribes circumstances when a person is exempted from the requirement to take part in an interview. Regulation 9 specifies when a requirement to take part in two or more interviews is satisfied by the person taking part in a single interview.

Regulation 10 provides for the person to be advised of the time and place of the interview and provides that an interview can take place in the person’s home if the interviewer considers that it would be unreasonable to require that person to attend elsewhere.

Regulation 11 prescribes circumstances as to when a person is to be regarded as having taken part in an interview and regulation 12 details the consequences of a failure to take part in an interview. Regulation 13 specifies the circumstances where those consequences do not apply and regulation 14 specifies the matters to be taken into account in determining whether a person had good cause for his failure to take part in an interview.

Regulation 15 provides that a decision that a person has failed to take part in an interview without good cause can be appealed to an appeal tribunal under section 12 of the Social Security Act 1998 (c. 14).

Regulation 16 and Schedule 1 revoke previous regulations, with savings and a transitional provision, which imposed requirements on persons in certain areas to take part in interviews.

Regulation 17 and Schedule 2 make amendments to other regulations which are consequential both on these Regulations and the revocation and transitional effect of the regulations referred to in Schedule 1.

These Regulations do not impose a charge on business.
