POLICE

The Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records) Regulations 2002

Made - - - - 7th February 2002
Laid before Parliament 7th February 2002
Coming into force - - 1st March 2002

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by the provisions which are specified in Schedule 1 to these Regulations, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records) Regulations 2002 and shall come into force on 1st March 2002.

(2) These Regulations extend to England and Wales.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“the Act” means the Police Act 1997 ^{M1};

“reprimand” means a reprimand given to a child or young person in accordance with section 65 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 ^{M2};

“volunteer” means a person engaged in an activity which involves spending time, unpaid (except for travel and other approved out-of-pocket expenses), doing something which aims to benefit some third party other than or in addition to a close relative;

“warning” means a warning given to a child or young person in accordance with section 65 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998.

Central records: prescribed details

9. Information in any form relating to convictions, cautions, reprimands and warnings on a names index held by the Police Information Technology Organisation for the use of constables is hereby prescribed as “central records” for the purposes of section 113(5) of the Act (including that provision as applied by sections 114(3), 115(6) and 116(3)).

Enhanced criminal record certificates: relevant police forces

10. For the purposes of an application for an enhanced criminal record certificate “relevant police force” means—

- (a) the police force maintained for the police area in England and Wales or Scotland within which the applicant resides or has resided within the period of 5 years preceding the date of the application;
- (b) the Police Service of Northern Ireland if the applicant resides or has resided within the period of 5 years preceding the date of the application within Northern Ireland;
- (c) such other police force as the chief officer of police of a police force identified as a relevant police force by virtue of paragraphs (a) or (b) above determines;
- (d) any police force that the Secretary of State determines to be relevant to the application.

Evidence of identity: fingerprinting

11.—(1) Where the Secretary of State requires an application under Part V of the Act to be supported by evidence of identity in the form of fingerprints then the place at which they are to be taken is to be determined in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) below and he shall notify the applicant—

- (a) of his requirement; and
- (b) of the fact that any fingerprints taken from the applicant and provided to the Secretary of State in pursuance of the requirement may be the subject of a speculative search.

(2) Any applicant in receipt of such notification shall notify the Secretary of State of whether he wishes to proceed with his application and, if so, notify the Secretary of State—

- (a) that he consents to the taking of his fingerprints; and
- (b) of the police station (“the specified police station”) that he proposes to attend at for the purposes of having his fingerprints taken.

(3) The Secretary of State may require the police officer in charge of the specified police station, or any other police station he reasonably determines, to take the applicant’s fingerprints at the specified station at such reasonable time as the officer may direct and notify to the applicant.

(4) Fingerprints taken in connection with an application under Part V of the Act must be destroyed as soon as is practicable after the identity of the applicant is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State.

- (5) If fingerprints are destroyed—
- (a) any copies of the fingerprints shall also be destroyed; and
 - (b) any chief officer of police controlling access to computer data relating to the fingerprints shall make access to the data impossible, as soon as it is practicable to do so.
- (6) Any applicant who asks to be allowed to witness the destruction of his fingerprints or copies of them shall have a right to witness it.
- (7) If—
- (a) paragraph (5)(b) above falls to be complied with; and
 - (b) the applicant to whose fingerprints the data relates asks for a certificate that it has been complied with,
- such a certificate shall be issued to him, not later than the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which he asks for it, by the responsible chief officer of police or a person authorised by him or on his behalf for the purposes of this regulation.
- (8) In the case of an applicant under the age of 18 years the consent of the applicant’s parent or guardian to the taking of the applicant’s fingerprints is also required.
- (9) In this regulation—
- “speculative search” has the same meaning as in Part V of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 ^{M10}; and
 - “responsible chief officer of police” means the chief officer of police in whose area the computer data were put on to the computer.
