Evidence of identity: fingerprinting

11.—(1) Where the Secretary of State requires an application under Part V of the Act to be supported by evidence of identity in the form of fingerprints then the place at which they are to be taken is to be determined in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) below and he shall notify the applicant—

- (a) of his requirement; and
- (b) of the fact that any fingerprints taken from the applicant and provided to the Secretary of State in pursuance of the requirement may be the subject of a speculative search.

(2) Any applicant in receipt of such notification shall notify the Secretary of State of whether he wishes to proceed with his application and, if so, notify the Secretary of State—

- (a) that he consents to the taking of his fingerprints; and
- (b) of the police station (“the specified police station”) that he proposes to attend at for the purposes of having his fingerprints taken.

(3) The Secretary of State may require the police officer in charge of the specified police station, or any other police station he reasonably determines, to take the applicant’s fingerprints at the specified station at such reasonable time as the officer may direct and notify to the applicant.

(4) Fingerprints taken in connection with an application under Part V of the Act must be destroyed as soon as is practicable after the identity of the applicant is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State.

(5) If fingerprints are destroyed—

- (a) any copies of the fingerprints shall also be destroyed; and

- (b) any chief officer of police controlling access to computer data relating to the fingerprints shall make access to the data impossible, as soon as it is practicable to do so.
- (6) Any applicant who asks to be allowed to witness the destruction of his fingerprints or copies of them shall have a right to witness it.

(7) If—

- (a) paragraph (5)(b) above falls to be complied with; and
- (b) the applicant to whose fingerprints the data relates asks for a certificate that it has been complied with, such a certificate shall be issued to him, not later than the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which he asks for it, by the responsible chief officer of police or a person authorised by him or on his behalf for the purposes of this regulation.

(8) In the case of an applicant under the age of 18 years the consent of the applicant’s parent or guardian to the taking of the applicant’s fingerprints is also required.

(9) In this regulation—

“speculative search” has the same meaning as in Part V of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 ^{M8}; and “responsible chief officer of police” means the chief officer of police in whose area the computer data were put on to the computer.

F19 SCHEDULE 3

Fees payable to police authorities

Textual Amendments

F19 Sch. 3 omitted (6.4.2006) by virtue of The Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records) (Amendment) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/748), regs. 1(1), 2(d)

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make detailed provisions in relation to applications for criminal record certificates and enhanced criminal record certificates under Part V of the Police Act 1997.

Regulation 2 defines terms used in the Regulations.

Regulation 3 requires an application for the issue of a criminal record certificate or an enhanced criminal record certificate to be made on the form, or one to like effect, set out in Schedule 2 to the Regulations. Regulation 4 specifies the fee for such an application as £12 save that no fee is payable when the applicant is a volunteer as defined in regulation 2.

Regulation 5 specifies the details of convictions and cautions, reprimands and warnings which appear on criminal record certificates and enhanced criminal record certificates.

Regulations 6, 7 and 8 specify the details of information drawn from lists kept under section 1 of the Protection of Children Act 1999, section 218(6) of the Education Reform Act 1988 and sections 470 and 471 of the Education Act 1996 respectively, which will appear on criminal record certificates and enhanced criminal record certificates.

Regulation 9 specifies the sources of information comprising central records of convictions, cautions, reprimands and warnings. Regulation 10 defines relevant police force for the purposes of section 115 of the Police Act 1997.

Regulation 11 makes provisions in relation to the taking of fingerprints from applicants where the Secretary of State requires them for the purposes of ascertaining the identity of an applicant.

Regulation 12 specifies the fees to be paid to police authorities who maintain police forces that have been requested to supply information in relation to an application for an enhanced criminal record certificate.
