

SCHEDULE 3

Information to be included in applications for consent to market genetically modified organisms

PART I

General information

4. A description of how the product and the genetically modified organism are intended to be used, highlighting any differences in use or management of the genetically modified organism compared to similar non-genetically modified products.