
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2002 No. 2978

The School Companies Regulations 2002

PART 4

The Supervising Authority for a School Company

Supervising authority may resign

21. Where a local education authority has been designated as the supervising authority for a school company by agreement under regulation 18(2)(a), 20(2)(b)(i) or 23(a), that authority may, after it has been the supervising authority for two years, resign from its role as supervising authority by serving 56 days notice on the company and all the relevant local education authorities.