
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2002 No. 2978

The School Companies Regulations 2002

PART 4

The Supervising Authority for a School Company

Circumstances in which the supervising authority must resign

22. If the supervising authority of a school company is a relevant local education authority and all the governing bodies of schools maintained by the supervising authority cease to be members of the company, the supervising authority must resign from its role as supervising authority by serving 56 days notice on the company and all the relevant local education authorities.