Claims for state pension credit

38.—(1) A claim for state pension credit may be made before the appointed day by a person who is not in receipt of income support at the time the claim is made.

(2) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that unless there is a change in the claimant’s circumstances before the appointed day he will satisfy the conditions for entitlement to state pension credit on that day, then the Secretary of State may—

- (a) treat that claim as if made for a period beginning with the appointed day; and
- (b) award benefit accordingly, but subject to the condition that the claimant does in fact satisfy those conditions when benefit becomes payable under the award.

(3) A decision under paragraph (2)(b) to award benefit may be revised under section 9 of the 1998 Act if the requirements for entitlement to state pension credit are found not to have been satisfied on the appointed day.

(4) A claim for state pension credit made in the period of 12 months beginning with the appointed day may be treated as made on that day if the claimant satisfied the conditions for entitlement to state pension credit on that day.

(5) A person who does not fall within paragraph (4)—

- (a) solely because he does not satisfy the conditions for entitlement to state pension credit on the appointed day; but
- (b) does satisfy those conditions on a day after the appointed day but before the day on which the claim is received by the Secretary of State, shall be treated as having made the claim on the day the conditions were first satisfied in his case.

(6) A claim for income support made in the period of 6 months preceding the appointed day may be treated also as a claim for state pension credit if the claimant—

- (a) is not entitled to income support; and
- (b) has attained the age of 60 on the date the claim is made or will have attained that age on the appointed day.

(7) Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall apply to a claim treated as made under paragraph (6) as they apply to a claim made under paragraph (1).

(8) In the case of a person who—

- (a) on the appointed day has attained the qualifying age;

(b) was, within the period of 6 months preceding the appointed day, entitled to income support;
and

(c) was not entitled to income support on the day immediately preceding the appointed day, that person shall be treated as having made a claim for state pension credit for a period beginning on the appointed day.

(9) The Secretary of State may treat a claim for state pension credit made in accordance with paragraph (1) as also a claim for income support made on the same day.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Regulations contained in this Instrument are made either by virtue of, or consequential upon, provisions in the State Pension Credit Act 2002 (c. 16) (“the 2002 Act”). This Instrument is made before the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the coming into force of those provisions;

(116) 1998 c. 14; Chapter II of Part I is applied to state pension credit by the amendment made to section 8 of the 1998 Act by the State Pension Credit Act 2002, Schedule 1, paragraph 6.

(117) 2002 c. 16.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

the regulations in it are therefore exempt in accordance with section 173(5) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 from the requirement in section 172(1) of that Act to refer proposals to make Regulations to the Social Security Advisory Committee and are made without reference to that Committee.

The amendments in Parts II, III, V and VI are consequential on the introduction of state pension credit. Part VII contains transitional matters.

Part I of the Regulations provides for their citation, commencement and interpretation.

Part II amends the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 so as to make separate provision for claims for, and payment of, state pension credit. Provision is made (regulation 4) for claims to be made by telephone or in person. Claims may be made at any time in the 4 months preceding the day a claimant attains the qualifying age for entitlement to state pension credit.

Claimants may be required to provide information as to the likelihood of future changes in their circumstances (regulation 5).

Regulation 7 provides for the date on which entitlement to state pension credit is to begin and regulation 9 for the day on which, and the method by which, the credit is to be paid.

Regulations 8, 10 to 12 and 14 apply provisions currently in the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 to state pension credit. Regulation 13 provides that regulation 35A (transitional provisions relating to persons in hostels and certain residential accommodation) is not to apply to state pension credit.

Part III applies provisions of the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations 1999 to state pension credit. Regulation 20 further provides that, where a claimant's appropriate minimum guarantee includes a transitional amount, provisions in section 159B of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 (inserted by the 2002 Act) relating to the effect of alterations affecting state pension credit, are not to apply. Regulation 22 makes provision as to the date from which a decision under section 10 of the Social Security Act 1998 (superseding decision) resulting from a change of circumstances takes effect.

Part IV makes changes to the State Pension Credit Regulations 2002. It adds provisions—

- relating to part-weeks;
- as to the meaning and calculation of “earnings” for the purposes of state pension credit;
- relating to the rounding of fractions;
- as to the disregard of assets of any business owned by the claimant.

Part V adds references to state pension credit to—

- the Social Security (Payments on account, Overpayments and Recovery) Regulations 1988;
- the Social Security (Attendance Allowance) Regulations 1991;
- the Child Support (Arrears, Interest and Adjustment of Maintenance Assessments) Regulations 1992;
- the Child Support (Maintenance Calculations and Special Cases) Regulations 2000;
- the Social Security (Disability Living Allowance) Regulations 1991;
- the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987;
- the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations 1996;
- the Social Fund Maternity and Funeral Expenses (General) Regulations 1987;
- the Social Fund Cold Weather Payments (General) Regulations 1988.

It also makes amendments to the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 consequential upon the 2002 Act which removes from entitlement to income support those who have attained the qualifying age for the purposes of state pension credit.

Part VI adds references to state pension credit to—

- the Fines (Deductions from Income Support) Regulations 1992;
- the Council Tax (Deductions from Income Support) Regulations 1993;
- the Community Charges (Deductions from Income Support)(Scotland) Regulations 1989;
- the Community Charges (Deductions from Income Support)(No. 2) Regulations 1990.

Part VII makes transitional provisions. Regulation 36 provides for those who were entitled to income support immediately before the 2002 Act comes into force to be treated as making a claim for state pension credit and for the determination of that claim. Regulation 37 makes provision for variable assessed income periods. Regulation 38 provides that a person not in receipt of income support may claim state pension credit before provisions of the 2002 Act relating to entitlement are commenced.

The impact on business of applying these Regulations is minimal and the publication of a regulatory impact assessment is therefore not necessary. A summary of the contents of the assessment made for the State Pension Credit Bill was published at paragraphs 183 and 184 of the Explanatory Notes relating to the Bill. A copy of the summary can be obtained from the Department for Work and Pensions, Regulatory Impact Unit, 3rd Floor, The Adelphi, 1–11 John Adam Street, London WC2N 6HT.
