
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2002 No. 3045

The Sale and Supply of Goods to Consumers Regulations 2002

Amendments to the Sale of Goods Act 1979

Other amendments to the 1979 Act

6.—(1) In section 61(1) after the definition of “plaintiff” there is inserted—

““producer” means the manufacturer of goods, the importer of goods into the European Economic Area or any person purporting to be a producer by placing his name, trade mark or other distinctive sign on the goods;”;

(2) in section 61(1) after the definition of “property” there is inserted—

““repair” means, in cases where there is a lack of conformity in goods for the purposes of section 48F of this Act, to bring the goods into conformity with the contract;”.