

SCHEDULE 1

SPECIFIED SUGAR PRODUCTS AND THEIR RESERVED DESCRIPTIONS

3. Where a specified sugar product described at paragraph 7 or 8 above contains fructose in a proportion of greater than 5% on a dry matter basis the reserved description shall be “glucose-fructose syrup” or “fructose-glucose syrup” and “dried glucose-fructose syrup” or “dried fructose-glucose syrup” as the case may be so as to reflect whether the glucose component or the fructose component is in greater proportion.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Specified Sugar Products (England) Regulations 2003, Paragraph 3.
