

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order, which is made under the Health Professions Order 2001, approves Rules made by the Health Professions Council in respect of the procedure of its Investigating Committee in considering allegations made against a health professional to whom the Health Professions Order 2001 applies.