STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2003 No. 1661

The Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003 (revoked)

PART II

DISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT AND VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Providers of vocational training

- 17.—(1) It is unlawful, in relation to a person seeking or undergoing training which would help fit him for any employment, for any training provider to discriminate against him—
  - (a) in the terms on which the training provider affords him access to any training;
  - (b) by refusing or deliberately not affording him such access;
  - (c) by terminating his training; or
  - (d) by subjecting him to any other detriment during his training.
- (2) It is unlawful for a training provider, in relation to a person seeking or undergoing training which would help fit him for any employment, to subject him to harassment.
- (3) Paragraph (1) does not apply if the discrimination only concerns training for employment which, by virtue of regulation 7 (exception for genuine occupational requirement etc), the employer could lawfully refuse to offer the person seeking training.
  - (4) In this regulation—

"training" includes—

- (a) facilities for training; and
- (b) practical work experience provided by an employer to a person whom he does not employ;

"training provider" means any person who provides, or makes arrangements for the provision of, training which would help fit another person for any employment, but it does not include—

- (a) an employer in relation to training for persons employed by him;
- (b) an educational establishment to which regulation 20 (institutions of further and higher education) applies, or would apply but for the operation of any other provision of these Regulations; or
- (c) a school.
