(3) A joint committee must appoint a chair annually and may remove its chair from office at any time.

- (b) a copy of the agenda for the meeting and
- (c) any reports or other papers to be considered at the meeting;

provided that where the chair of the joint committee so determines on the ground that there are matters demanding urgent consideration, it will be sufficient if the written notice of the meeting states that fact and the notice, agenda and reports or other papers to be considered at the meeting are given within such shorter period as he directs.

(3) The proceedings of a joint committee are not invalidated by—

- (a) any vacancy among its number; or
- (b) any defect in the appointment of any member of the joint committee.

that person, if present at a meeting of the joint committee at which the matter is the subject of consideration, must disclose his interest, withdraw from the meeting and not vote on the matter in question.

(3) Nothing in this regulation or in the Schedule shall be construed as precluding—

- (a) the joint committee from—

 - (ii) hearing representations from a relevant person acting in a capacity other than that of a relevant person;
- (b) a relevant person from entering into a contract with a collaborating governing body from which he is entitled to profit.

(4) A person who is acting as the clerk to a meeting of the joint committee is not required to withdraw from a meeting by this regulation or the Schedule unless his appointment to office, his remuneration, or disciplinary action against him is the subject of consideration, but if this regulation or the Schedule would have otherwise required him to withdraw, he must not act in any capacity other than that of clerk.

(5) Where there is any dispute as to whether a relevant person is required by this regulation to withdraw from a meeting of the joint committee and not vote that question must be determined by the other members of the joint committee present at the meeting.

(6) The Schedule makes provision for pecuniary interests and other specified conflicts of interest.
