2003 No. 270

The Social Security (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Amendment Regulations 2003

Transitional provision

- 6.—(1) Regulations 2 and 5 shall not apply—
- (a) to a period of assessment which relates to a claim which is made before the commencement date;
  - (b) to a period of assessment which relates to a claim which is made within 3 months after the commencement date in respect of a period which began before the commencement date; or
  - (c) where a person suffers from an attack of a disease and under regulation 7 of the principal Regulations (recrudescence) the attack is a recrudescence of a disease for which a claim was made before the commencement date (or within 3 months after the commencement date in respect of a period which began before the commencement date).
- (2) For the purposes of this regulation—
- (a) “commencement date” means the date on which these Regulations come into force;
  - (b) the date on which a claim is made is the date on which the claim is made or treated as made in accordance with the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987<sup>(1)</sup>; and
  - (c) a period of assessment which begins on the day following the end of a preceding period of assessment, shall be treated as a continuation of the preceding period of assessment.
