

SCHEDULE 2

CLIENT ACCOUNTS

3. An agency may pay into a client account—
  - (a) such money belonging to the agency as may be necessary for the purpose of opening or maintaining the account;
  - (b) money to replace any sum which for any reason may have been drawn from the account in contravention of paragraph 7(2); and
  - (c) money received by the agency which under paragraph 4(b) the agency is entitled to split but which the agency does not split.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, Paragraph 3.