The Medicines for Human Use
(Clinical Trials) Regulations 2004

PART 2

ETHICS COMMITTEES

Establishment of ethics committees

- 6.—(1) The Authority may establish ethics committees to act—
- (a) for the entire United Kingdom or for such areas of the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) in relation to such descriptions or classes of clinical trials,
- as the Authority consider appropriate.
- (2) The Authority may—
- (a) vary the area for which any committee they have established acts or, as the case may be, the descriptions or classes of clinical trials in relation to which such a committee acts; and
 - (b) abolish any such committee.
