PLANT HEALTH

The Plant Health (Export Certification)
(Forestry) (Great Britain) Order 2004

Made	- - - -	30th June 2004
Laid before Parliament		5th July 2004
Coming into force	- -	28th July 2004

The Forestry Commissioners, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 3(1) and (4) and 4A of the Plant Health Act 1967(1), with the consent of the Treasury, make the following Order:

Title and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as The Plant Health (Export Certification) (Forestry) (Great Britain) Order 2004 and shall come into force on 28th July 2004.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“authorised officer” means an officer of the Forestry Commissioners or any person, whether or not an officer of the Forestry Commissioners, authorised by the Forestry Commissioners to be an inspector for the purposes of the Plant Health (Forestry) (Great Britain) Order 1993(2);

“certificate”, in relation to an application made pursuant to this Order, means either a phytosanitary certificate or a reforwarding phytosanitary certificate, as the case may be;

“phytosanitary certificate” means a certificate duly completed in the form set out in Schedule 1 or in such other similar form as may be agreed between the Forestry Commissioners and the third country whose phytosanitary requirements the certificate is intended to meet;

“reforwarding phytosanitary certificate” means a certificate duly completed in the form set out in Schedule 2 or in such other similar form as may be agreed between the Forestry Commissioners and the third country whose phytosanitary requirements the certificate is intended to meet;

“relevant material” means:—

(1) 1967 c. 8; sections 2(1) and 3(1) and (2) were amended by the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68), section 4(1) and Schedule 4, paragraph 8; section 3(4) was substituted by section 42 of the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48).
(2) S.I.1993/1283, amended by SI2001/2995; there are other amending instruments but none is relevant to this Order.

- (a) any tree, wood, isolated bark, soil or growing medium, as those terms are defined in the Plant Health (Forestry) (Great Britain) Order 1993;
 - (b) non-manufactured wood which is in the form of packing cases, boxes, crates, drums and similar packings, pallets, box pallets and other load boards and pallet collars, whether or not in use in the transport of objects; and
 - (c) used forestry machinery;
- “third country” has the same meaning in this Order as in the Plant Health (Forestry) (Great Britain) Order 1993.

Certificates for export or re-export of relevant material to third countries

3.—(1) A person who intends exporting or re-exporting relevant material to a third country may apply to the Forestry Commissioners, in such form and manner as they may specify, for a certificate under this Order.

(2) Where the Forestry Commissioners have received an application, made in accordance with paragraph (1), an authorised officer shall —

- (a) carry out any of the services listed in the first column of Schedule 3 which he considers necessary to allow him to issue the certificate; and
- (b) if he is satisfied that a certificate should be issued, issue the certificate on behalf of the Forestry Commissioners.

Charges

4. An applicant for a certificate shall pay to the Forestry Commissioners, in respect of the services referred to in the first column of Schedule 3, the fee set out opposite in the second column of that Schedule.

Offences

5.—(1) A person shall be guilty of an offence if, for the purposes of procuring the issue of a certificate under this Order, he—

- (a) makes a statement which he knows to be false in a material particular;
- (b) recklessly makes a statement which is false in a material particular; or
- (c) intentionally fails to disclose any material information.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under paragraph (1) shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
