The Justification of Practices Involving
Ionising Radiation Regulations 2004

PART 2

General Principles

Transitional Arrangements- new classes or types of practice

7. Subject to regulation 5(3)—
- (a) a person may carry out a practice of a new class or type, for a period of six months beginning on the date of the coming into force of these Regulations, if he first carried out the practice in the United Kingdom before the coming into force of these Regulations;
 - (b) that person may continue to carry out that practice after the expiry of that period—
 - (i) if he has, within that period, applied for a justification decision; and
 - (ii) until a justification decision has been made.
