THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS RULES OF PROCEDURE

CONCILIATION

Effect of staying or sisting proceedings on the conciliation period

24. Where during a conciliation period an order is made to stay (or in Scotland, sist) the proceedings, that order has the effect of suspending any conciliation period in those proceedings. Any unexpired portion of a conciliation period takes effect from the date on which the stay comes to an end (or in Scotland, the sist is recalled) and continues for the duration of the unexpired portion of that conciliation period or two weeks (whichever is the greater).
