2005 No. 1803

The General Product Safety Regulations 2005

PART 2

OBLIGATIONS OF PRODUCERS AND DISTRIBUTORS

Other obligations of producers

- 7.—(1) Within the limits of his activities, a producer shall provide consumers with the relevant information to enable them—
 - (a) to assess the risks inherent in a product throughout the normal or reasonably foreseeable period of its use, where such risks are not immediately obvious without adequate warnings, and
 - (b) to take precautions against those risks.
- (2) The presence of warnings does not exempt any person from compliance with the other requirements of these Regulations.
- (3) Within the limits of his activities, a producer shall adopt measures commensurate with the characteristics of the products which he supplies to enable him to—
 - (a) be informed of the risks which the products might pose, and
 - (b) take appropriate action including, where necessary to avoid such risks, withdrawal, adequately and effectively warning consumers as to the risks or, as a last resort, recall.
 - (4) The measures referred to in paragraph (3) include—
 - (a) except where it is not reasonable to do so, an indication by means of the product or its packaging of—
 - (i) the name and address of the producer, and
 - (ii) the product reference or where applicable the batch of products to which it belongs; and
 - (b) where and to the extent that it is reasonable to do so—
 - (i) sample testing of marketed products,
 - (ii) investigating and if necessary keeping a register of complaints concerning the safety of the product, and
 - (iii) keeping distributors informed of the results of such monitoring where a product presents a risk or may present a risk.
