(5) S.I. 1994/867 to which there are amendments not relevant to these Regulations.

premises which have been selected for sampling, for the purpose of taking samples as required by the Commission Decision and for the purpose of enforcement of these Regulations.

(2) An authorised officer shall, if a relevant agreement has been entered into under regulation 10, on producing, if requested, some duly authenticated document showing his authority, have the right at all reasonable hours to enter premises for the purpose of enforcement of these Regulations.

General Powers

6.—(1) An inspector, and an authorised officer if a relevant agreement has been entered into under regulation 10, may exercise the following powers for the purposes set out in paragraph (3)—

- (a) examine, retain or copy any records including computerised records that appear to him to be, or likely to be, relevant;
- (b) take with him such vehicles and equipment as he considers necessary;
- (c) be accompanied by such other persons as he considers necessary; and
- (d) require the occupier or person in charge of premises or any employee or agent of that occupier or person in charge of those premises to provide to him such assistance, co-operation, information and documentation including records, computerised or otherwise, as he may reasonably consider appropriate.

(2) An inspector for the purpose of sampling required by the Commission Decision, may also take and retain samples of faecal and environmental material, in accordance with the Technical Specifications, as well as take all other samples that he considers necessary.

(3) The purposes for which the powers in paragraph (1) may be exercised are—

- (a) in the case of an inspector, sampling required by the Commission Decision and enforcement of these Regulations; and
- (b) in the case of an authorised officer, enforcement of these Regulations.

Notices

7.—(1) A notice in writing to be given to any person under regulation 5 may be given—

- (a) by delivering it to that person;
- (b) by leaving it, or sending it in a pre paid envelope addressed to that person, at the usual or last known place of business or residence of that person, or in the case of a body corporate or partnership at any place of business or the registered office of that body corporate or partnership; or
- (c) where that person has consented to the use of electronic communications (as defined in the Electronic Communications Act 2000(6)), by that method.

(2) A notice in writing sent to a person as an electronic communication shall be regarded as sent when the text of it is received in a legible form.

Offences

8. Any person who—

- (a) intentionally obstructs any person acting under these Regulations;
- (b) without reasonable cause, fails to respond to inquiries under regulation 4(2)(a);
- (c) without reasonable cause, fails to act as required by an inspector or authorised person exercising powers under regulation 4(2)(a) or (c) or regulation 6(1)(d); or

(6) 2000 c. 7.

(d) provides to any person acting in the execution of these Regulations any information or documentation which he knows to be false or misleading, shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalties

9.—(1) A person who is guilty of an offence under these Regulations shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(2) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under these Regulations, and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of—

- (a) any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate;
- (b) any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity; or
- (c) in the case of a partnership, a partner or person who was purporting to act as such,

any such person, as well as the body corporate or partnership, shall be guilty of the offence and be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), “director”, in relation to a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, includes a member of the body corporate.

Enforcement

10.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Secretary of State shall be responsible for enforcement of these Regulations.

(2) In respect of any area, the Secretary of State and a local authority for the area may enter into an agreement under which responsibilities of the Secretary of State under paragraph (1) shall be vested in the local authority instead of the Secretary of State and the local authority shall then have those responsibilities during the currency of the agreement.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which apply in relation to England only, revoke and replace SI 2004/2885 which implemented Commission Decision 2004/665/EC (O.J. No. L303, 30.09.2004, p.30) concerning a baseline study on the prevalence of Salmonella in laying flocks of Gallus gallus. They correct errors in the interpretation and offences provisions and make other minor drafting changes.

Commission Decision 2004/665/EC requires Member States to carry out a survey for salmonella prevalence in laying flocks in accordance with certain technical specifications referred to in Article 5 of the Commission Decision. The text of the technical specifications can be found at http://europa.eu.int/comm/food/food/biosafety/salmonella/tech\_spec\_sanco-34-2004\_rev-3\_en.pdf

These Regulations—

- (a) revoke and replace the Salmonella in Laying Flocks (Survey Powers)(England) Regulations 2004 (SI 2004/2885) (regulation 1);
- (b) designate the Secretary of State for the purpose of selecting premises for sampling and give inspectors the powers required for selecting premises for sampling (regulation 4);
- (c) provide powers for inspectors to enter premises for the purposes of the Commission Decision and for the purpose of enforcement of these Regulations (regulation 5);
- (d) provide powers for local authority officers to enter premises for the purpose of enforcement of these Regulations where agreement is reached with the Secretary of State for the local authority to enforce (regulation 5);
- (e) provide powers for inspectors to examine and retain records, take equipment and vehicles on to the premises, be accompanied by other persons, and request information, documentation and assistance, for the purpose of carrying out sampling under these Regulations and for the purpose of enforcement of these Regulations (regulation 6);
- (f) provide powers for inspectors to take samples of faecal and environmental material (regulation 6);
- (g) provide powers for local authority officers for the purpose of enforcement of these Regulations where agreement is reached with the Secretary of State for the local authority to enforce (regulation 6);
- (h) set out requirements for notices in writing (regulation 7);
- (i) prescribe offences and penalties (regulation 8 and 9); and
- (j) provide for enforcement by the Secretary of State of these Regulations as well as for enforcement by the local authority where this is agreed with the Secretary of State (regulation 10).

A regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the costs of business.
