

---

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2005 No. 3595

The Register of Judgments, Orders and Fines Regulations 2005

Searches of the Register

27.—(1) Subject to regulation 29, searches of a section of the Register may be carried out on payment of the applicable charge relevant to the type and method of search.

(2) The types of search which may be carried out are—

- (a) at a stated address, against a named individual or unincorporated body;
- (b) against a named incorporated body;
- (c) a periodical search—
  - (i) relating to a named court;
  - (ii) within a named county; or
  - (iii) with the agreement of the Registrar, against such other criteria as may be requested.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Register of Judgments, Orders and Fines Regulations 2005, Section 27.