

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

14. The asking of an accused whether he pleads guilty or not guilty to a charge, after having stated to him the substance of the information laid against him.