Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Pension Protection Fund (Review and Reconsideration of Reviewable Matters) Regulations 2005 and shall come into force on 6th April 2005.

(2) In these Regulations—

“the Act” means the Pensions Act 2004;

“employer”, in relation to an occupational pension scheme that has no active members, includes every person who was the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme relates immediately before the time at which the scheme ceased to have any active members in relation to it.

- (1) 2004 c. 35. Part 2 of the Pensions Act 2004 is modified in its application to partially guaranteed schemes by the Pension Protection Fund (Partially Guaranteed Schemes) Regulations 2005 (S.I.2005/277), in its application to hybrid schemes by the Pension Protection Fund (Hybrid Schemes) (Modification) Regulations 2005 (S.I.2005/449), and in its application to multi-employer schemes by the Pension Protection Fund (Multi-employer Schemes) (Modification) Regulations 2005 (S.I.2005/441). Section 318(1) is cited because of the meaning there given to “modifications”, “prescribed” and “regulations”.
- (2) 1992 c. 53. Schedule 1 to that Act is amended by paragraph 8 of Schedule 12 to the Pensions Act 2004.
- (3) See section 317(2)(c) of the Pensions Act 2004 which provides that the Secretary of State must consult such persons as he considers appropriate before making regulations by virtue of the provisions of that Act (other than Part 8). This duty does not apply where regulations are made before the end of six months beginning with the coming into force of the provisions of that Act by virtue of which the regulations are made.

“employer”, in relation to a multi-employer scheme, or a section of a multi-employer scheme, includes—

- (a) in the case of a scheme that has no active members, every person who was the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme, or section, relates immediately before the time at which the scheme, or section, ceased to have any active members in relation to it unless, after that time—
  - (i) a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995<sup>(4)</sup> (deficiencies in the assets) becomes due from that person to the scheme, or section; and
  - (ii) either—
    - (aa) the full amount of the debt has been paid by that person to the trustees or managers of the scheme, or section, or
    - (bb) in circumstances where a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into between that person and the trustees or managers of the scheme, or section, the effect of which is to reduce the amount which is payable in respect of the debt, the reduced amount of the debt has been paid in full by that person to those trustees or managers; and
- (b) in any other case, any person who has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme, or section, relates unless—
  - (i) at the time when he so ceased, the scheme, or section was not being wound up and continued to have active members in relation to it; and
  - (ii) a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995 became due at that time from that person to the scheme, or section, and either—
    - (aa) the full amount of the debt has been paid by that person to the trustees or managers of the scheme, or section, or
    - (bb) in circumstances where a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into between that person and the trustees or managers of the scheme, or section, the effect of which is to reduce the amount which is payable in respect of the debt, the reduced amount of the debt has been paid in full by that person to those trustees or managers;

“interested person”, unless the context otherwise requires, means, in relation to a reviewable matter specified in any paragraph in column 1 of the Schedule, the person prescribed in relation to that matter in the corresponding paragraph in column 2 or, as the case may be, a representative of that person appointed under regulation 28.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide for the review and reconsideration by the PPF Board of the reviewable matters specified in Schedule 9 to the Pensions Act 2004 (c. 35) (“the Act”).

The Board of the Pension Protection Fund is established by section 107 of the Act to provide compensation for members of certain occupational pension schemes in the event of the insolvency of the scheme’s sponsoring employer and where the pension scheme is underfunded at a certain level.

Regulation 1 provides for citation, commencement and interpretation and, in particular, defines for the purposes of these Regulations the interested persons who may apply for a review decision on a reviewable matter.

Regulation 2 provides that the Board must give a review decision on any reviewable matter on the written application of an interested person.

Regulation 3 prescribes the period within which an application for a review decision must be made. It also provides for the circumstances in which the Board must give a review decision following an application made outside that period.

Regulation 4 sets out the matters to be addressed or included in an application for a review decision on any reviewable matter.

Regulation 5 provides for the Board to notify certain persons who may be materially affected by the review decision that an application has been received and of the grounds on which it has been made.

Regulation 6 provides that the Board may give a review decision otherwise than on an application on certain reviewable matters.

Regulation 7 provides that where the Board decides to give a review decision otherwise than on an application it must notify certain persons.

(10) Paragraph 17A to Schedule 9 is inserted by regulation 4 of S.I. 2005/600.

Regulation 8 provides that interested persons may make written representations to the Board by such time as the Board may require.

Regulation 9 sets out the matters to be considered by the Board in giving a review decision under regulation 2 or 6(1).

Regulation 10 provides for the period within which the Board must give a review decision. It also provides for an interim reply to be given setting out the reasons for any delay and the expected date for issuing the decision. Similar provision is made in respect of a review decision made otherwise than on an application.

Regulation 11 sets out the powers that the Board has in giving a review decision under regulation 2 or 6(1), including a power to vary, revoke or substitute a determination to pay compensation and to make saving and transitional provision.

Regulation 12 provides for a review decision to be given in writing and for the matters to be included in the decision.

Regulation 13 provides that the Board must send a copy of a review decision to certain persons.

Regulation 14 provides that where the Board has given a review decision and an interested person makes an application for the reviewable matter to be reconsidered the Reconsideration Committee must give a reconsideration decision.

Regulation 15 provides that an application for reconsideration must be made in writing and must be made by sending it to the Reconsideration Committee within 28 days of the date of issue of the review decision. It also provides for the circumstances in which the Reconsideration Committee may accept an application made outside that period and give a reconsideration decision.

Regulation 16 sets out the matters to be addressed or included in an application for a reconsideration decision.

Regulation 17 provides for the Reconsideration Committee to notify certain persons that an application has been received and of the grounds on which it has been made.

Regulation 18 provides that the Reconsideration Committee may give a reconsideration decision otherwise than on an application on certain reviewable matters.

Regulation 19 provides that where the Reconsideration Committee decides to give a reconsideration decision otherwise than on an application it must notify certain persons.

Regulation 20 provides that an interested person may make written representations to the Reconsideration Committee by such time as the Reconsideration Committee may require.

Regulation 21 sets out the matters to be considered by the Reconsideration Committee in giving a reconsideration decision under regulation 14(1) or 18(1).

Regulation 22 provides for the period within which the Reconsideration Committee must give a reconsideration decision. It also provides for an interim reply to be given setting out the reasons for any delay and the expected date for issuing the decision. Similar provision is also made in respect of a reconsideration decision made otherwise than on an application.

Regulation 23 sets out the powers that the Reconsideration Committee has in giving a reconsideration decision under regulation 14(1) or 18(1).

Regulation 24 sets out the procedure for reaching and giving reconsideration decision.

Regulation 25 provides that the Reconsideration Committee must send a copy of a reconsideration decision to certain persons.

Regulation 27 provides that a member of the Council on Tribunals or the Scottish Committee of the Council on Tribunals may attend a meeting of the Reconsideration Committee but may not take part in the reconsideration or the reconsideration decision.

Regulation 28 provides for the appointment of a representative.

As these Regulations are made before the expiry of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of the provisions of the Act by virtue of which they are made, the requirement for the Secretary of State to consult such persons as he considers appropriate does not apply. However, these Regulations have been made following consultation with the Council on Tribunals in accordance with section 8 of the Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1992 (c. 53).

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the costs of business.
