2006 No. 1471

The Animals and Animal Products (Import and Export) (England) Regulations 2006 (revoked)

PART 3

Third Countries

Post-import controls

24.—(1) Where a veterinary inspector knows or suspects that import conditions (including requirements for the quarantine of imported animals) have not been complied with or there is doubt as to the identity of an animal, he may carry out any veterinary checks on that animal that he deems appropriate.

(2) If the checks confirm that import conditions were not complied with, then the provisions of regulation 22 shall apply as they apply at a border inspection post and, in the case of the exercise of a power to place the animals in quarantine or to isolate them, a veterinary inspector may additionally require the placing in quarantine or isolation of other animals which have been in contact with the imported animals.

Status:

Point in time view as at 29/06/2006. This version of this provision has been superseded.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Animals and Animal Products (Import and Export) (England) Regulations 2006 (revoked), Section 24.
