2006 No. 1838

The Inquiry Rules 2006

Interpretation

3.—(1) Any requirement under these Rules that a document is given or sent to any person by a member of the inquiry team is satisfied by that document being—

- (a) delivered in person;
- (b) left at the person's designated postal address;
- (c) sent to the person's designated postal address by first class post;
- (d) faxed to the person's designated fax number; or
- (e) subject to paragraph (2), sent by email.

(2) A document may be sent by email to a person's designated email address if the person has informed the secretary to the inquiry in writing that he is willing to accept documents sent email.
