PART 2 U.K.

Qualifying young persons: prescribed conditions

Introduction U.K.

- 2.—(1) Regulations 3 to 7 prescribe—
- (a) the age which a person must not have attained, and
 - (b) the conditions which are to be satisfied,

for a person to be a qualifying young person.

(2) Where more than one of those regulations apply to a person, he is a qualifying young person until the last of them ceases to be satisfied.

(3) Regulations 3 to 7 are subject to the following qualifications.

(4) Regulation 8 prescribes an additional condition which must be satisfied for a person to be a qualifying young person in respect of a week.

(5) No-one who had attained the age of 19 before 10th April 2006 is a qualifying young person.

Education and training condition U.K.

- 3.—(1) This regulation applies in the case of a person who has not attained the age of 20.

- (2) The condition is that the person—
- (a) is undertaking a course of full-time education, which is not advanced education and which is not provided by virtue of his employment or any office held by him—
 - (i) which is provided at a school or college; or
 - (ii) which is provided elsewhere but is approved by the Commissioners;
 - [^{F14}(ab) is being provided with “appropriate full-time education” in England within section 4 (appropriate full-time education or training) of the Education and Skills Act 2008, which is not—
 - (i) a course in preparation for a degree, a diploma of higher education, a higher national certificate, a higher national diploma, a teaching qualification, any other course which is of a standard [^{F15}above ordinary national diploma, a national diploma or national certificate] of Edexcel, a general certificate of education (advanced level), or Scottish national qualifications at higher or advanced higher level;
 - (ii) provided by virtue of his employment or any office held by him;]
 - (b) having undertaken such a course as is mentioned in [^{F16}paragraph (a) or (ab)] [^{F17}has been accepted or is enrolled to undertake a further such course;]
 - (c) is undertaking approved training that is not provided by means of a contract of employment [^{F18}; or
 - (d) having undertaken a course mentioned in paragraph (a) or approved training mentioned in paragraph (c), has been accepted or is enrolled to undertake such approved training]
- (3) A person is not a qualifying young person by virtue of paragraph (2)(a)(ii) unless he was receiving the education referred to in that paragraph as a child.
- (4) A person who is aged 19 is only a qualifying young person by virtue of [^{F19}paragraph (2)(a), (2)(ab)] or (2)(c) if he began the education or training (as the case may be) referred to in that subparagraph [^{F20}, or was accepted or enrolled to undertake that education or training,] before attaining that age.

Extension period: 16 and 17 year olds U.K.

5.—(1) This regulation applies in the case of a person who has not attained the age of 18.

(2) The condition is that—

- (a) the person has ceased to be in education or training;
- (b) the person is registered for work, education or for training with a qualifying body;
- (c) the person is not engaged in remunerative work;
- (d) the extension period which applies in the case of that person has not expired;
- (e) immediately before the extension period begins, the person who is responsible for him is entitled to child benefit in respect of him without regard to this regulation; and

[^{F23}(f) the individual who is responsible for that person, within three months of that person's ceasing education or training, has made a request for the payment of child benefit during the extension period to the Commissioners, in writing, or by such other means as the Commissioners may accept.]

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2) the extension period—

- (a) begins on the first day of the week after that in which the person ceased to be in education or training; and
- (b) ends 20 weeks after it started.

(4) In this regulation “qualifying body” means—

- (a) the Careers Service or Connexions Service;
- (b) the Ministry of Defence;
- (c) in Northern Ireland, the Department for Employment and Learning or an Education and Library Board established under Article 3 of the Education and Libraries (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 ^{M33}; or

6.—(1) This regulation applies in the case of a person who has not attained the age of 20.

(2) If, immediately before the commencement of an interruption specified in paragraph (3)(a) or (b), a person was a qualifying young person by virtue of any other provision of these Regulations, he is such a person throughout a period of interruption during which he satisfies the condition specified in that sub-paragraph.

(3) The periods of interruption are—

- (a) one of up to six months (whether beginning before or after the person concerned became 16) but only to the extent to which, in the opinion of the Commissioners, that the interruption is reasonable; and
- (b) one attributable to the illness or disability of mind or body of the person concerned for such period as is reasonable in the opinion of the Commissioners.

This is subject to the following qualification.

(4) Paragraph (3) does not apply to an interruption which is, or is likely to be, followed immediately by a period during which—

- (a) provision is made for training of that person which is not approved training;
- (b) he is receiving advanced education;
- (c) he is receiving education by virtue of his employment or of any office held by him.

Qualifying young person: terminal dates U.K.

7.—(1) This regulation applies in the case of a person who has not attained the age of 20.

(2) The condition is that the period found in accordance with Cases 1 and 2 has not expired in his case.

Case 1

(1) The period is from the date on which he ceases to receive relevant education or approved training, up to and including—

- (a) the week including the terminal date, or
- (b) if he attains the age of 20 on or before that date, the week including the last Monday before he attains that age.

(1) For the purposes of this Case the “terminal date” means—

- (a) the last day in February,
- (b) the last day in May,

Status: Point in time view as at 20/07/2018.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Child Benefit (General) Regulations 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the last day in August,
- (d) the last day in November,

whichever first occurs after the date on which the person's relevant education or approved training ceased (but subject to paragraph 1.3 of this Case).

- (1) In the case of a person in Scotland who—
 - (a) undertakes the Higher Certificate or Advanced Higher Certificate immediately before ceasing relevant education, and
 - (b) ceases relevant education on a date earlier than he would have done had he undertaken the comparable examination in England and Wales, the terminal date shall be reckoned by reference to the date on which the cessation would have occurred had he undertaken the comparable examination.

Case 2

- (2) Where a person's name is entered as a candidate for any external examination in connection with relevant education which he is receiving at that time, so long as his name continues to be so entered before ceasing to receive such education, the prescribed period is—
 - (a) from the later of—
 - (i) date when that person ceased to receive relevant education, or
 - (ii) the date on which he attained the age of 16,
 - (b) up to and including—
 - (i) whichever of the dates in paragraph 1.2 (as modified by paragraph 1.3 where appropriate) first occurs after the conclusion of the examination (or the last of the examinations if the person is entered for more than one), or
 - (ii) the expiry of the week which includes the last Monday before his 20th birthday, whichever is the earlier.

This paragraph is subject to the following qualification.

(3) Child benefit is not payable in respect of a qualifying young person by virtue of this regulation for any week in which he is engaged in remunerative work.

Child benefit not payable in respect of qualifying young person: other financial support U.K.

- 8.—(1) This regulation applies in the case of a person who has not attained the age of 20 years.
- (2) The condition is that the person is not in receipt, in a week, of—
 - (a) income support,
 - (b) income-based jobseeker's allowance within the meaning of section 1(4) of the Jobseekers Act 1995 or Article 3(4) of the Jobseekers (Northern Ireland) Order 1995,
 - (c) incapacity benefit by virtue of being a person to whom section 30A(1)(b) of SSCBA ^{M34} or section 30A(1)(b) of SSCB(NI)A ^{M35} applies, ^{F25} ...
 - (d) tax credit under the Tax Credits Act 2002, ^{F26} ...
 - (e) [^{F27}employment and support allowance payable under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007][^{F28},or

- (f) universal credit under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012^{F29} or Part 2 of the Welfare Reform (Northern Ireland) Order 2015].

PART 3 U.K.

Person responsible for child or qualifying young person

Child or qualifying young person in residential accommodation in prescribed circumstances U.K.

9. For the purposes of section 143(3)(c) of SSCBA and section 139(3)(c) of SSCB(NI)A (absence of child or qualifying young person in residential accommodation), the prescribed circumstances are that the residential accommodation has been provided solely—

- (a) because of the disability of the child or qualifying young person, or
- (b) because the child or qualifying young person's health would be likely to be significantly impaired, or further impaired, unless such accommodation were provided.

Days disregarded in determining whether child or qualifying young person living with someone U.K.

10.—(1) For the purpose of section 143(4) of SSCBA and section 139(4) of SSCB(NI)A (number of days that may be disregarded), the prescribed number of days is 84 consecutive days, calculated in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) Two or more distinct relevant periods separated by one or more intervals each not exceeding 28 days are treated as a continuous period equal in duration to the total of such distinct periods and ending on the last day of the latter or last of such periods.

(3) In paragraph (2) “relevant periods” means periods to which—

Status: Point in time view as at 20/07/2018.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Child Benefit (General) Regulations 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) section 143(3)(b) of SSCBA or section 139(3)(b) of SSCB(NI)A (absence of a child or qualifying young person undergoing medical or other treatment) applies;
- (b) section 143(3)(c) of SSCBA or section 139(3)(c) of SSCB(NI)A (absence of a child or qualifying young person in residential accommodation) applies.

Prescribed circumstances relating to contributions and expenditure in respect of child or qualifying young person U.K.

11.—(1) For the purposes of section 143(5)(a) of SSCBA and section 139(5)(a) of SSCB(NI)A (contributing to the cost of providing for a child or qualifying young person) the prescribed circumstances are that—

- (a) two or more persons are contributing to the cost of providing for the same child or qualifying young person;
- (b) the aggregate weekly amount of their contributions equals or exceeds, but the weekly amount of each of their individual contributions is less than, the weekly rate of child benefit which would be payable in respect of that child or qualifying young person had the aggregate weekly amount of their contributions been contributed by one only of them; and
- (c) they by agreement nominate in writing or, in default of such agreement, the Commissioners in their discretion determine, that the aggregate weekly amount of their contributions is to be treated as having been made by the person so nominated or determined.

This paragraph is subject to paragraph (3).

(2) The contribution subject to the nomination or determination made under paragraph (1) shall be treated as made by the person nominated or determined.

(3) Where pursuant to a nomination or determination made under paragraph (1) a person is awarded child benefit, the nomination or determination ceases to have effect in the week following that in which child benefit is awarded to that person (and accordingly thereafter the person shall be required to contribute to the maintenance of the child or qualifying young person at a rate which equals or exceeds the rate of child benefit payable in respect of that child or qualifying young person).

(4) Where spouses or civil partners are residing together a contribution made or expenditure incurred by one of them in respect of a child or qualifying young person shall if they agree, or in default of such agreement if the Commissioners in their discretion so determine, be treated as made or incurred by the other.

PART 4 U.K.

Exclusions and priority

Child benefit not payable: qualifying young person living with another as member of couple U.K.

12.—(1) Child benefit is not payable to any person (“the claimant”) in respect of a qualifying young person for any week in which the qualifying young person is living with another—

- (a) as if they were spouses, or
- (b) as a member of a cohabiting same-sex couple, unless paragraph (2) applies.

The person with whom the qualifying young person is living is referred to in paragraph (2) as “the cohabitee”.

- (2) This paragraph applies if—
- (a) the cohabitee is receiving relevant education or approved training; and
 - (b) the claimant is not the cohabitee.

Qualifying young person in a relevant relationship U.K.

13.—(1) A person (“the claimant”) shall be entitled to child benefit in respect of a qualifying young person in a relevant relationship by virtue of paragraph 3 of Schedule 9 to SSCBA ^{M36} or paragraph 3 of Schedule 9 to SSCB(NI)A (entitlement: children or qualifying young persons who are married or civil partners) only if—

- (a) the claimant is not the spouse or civil partner of that qualifying young person; and
 - (b) the qualifying young person is not residing with his spouse or civil partner, or, if he is, the spouse or civil partner is receiving relevant education or approved training.
- (2) In paragraph (1) “relevant relationship” means a marriage or a civil partnership.

Child or qualifying young persons in detention, care etc. U.K.

16.—(1) Paragraph 1 of Schedule 9 to SSCBA and paragraph 1 of Schedule 9 to SSCB(NI)A do not apply to disentitle a person to child benefit in respect of a child or qualifying young person for any week—

- (a) unless that week is the 9th or a subsequent week in a series of consecutive weeks in which either of those paragraphs has applied to that child or qualifying young person; or
- (b) notwithstanding paragraph (a), if—
 - (i) that week is one in which falls the first day in a period of seven consecutive days in which the child or qualifying young person lives with that person for at least a part of the first day and throughout the following six days;
 - (ii) that week is one in which falls the first day in a period of seven consecutive days throughout which the child or qualifying young person lives with that person, being a period of seven consecutive days which immediately follows either a similar period of seven consecutive days or the period of seven consecutive days referred to in head (i) above;
 - (iii) that week is one in which falls the day, or the first day in a period of less than seven consecutive days, throughout which the child or qualifying young person lives with that person, being a day or days which immediately follow the period of seven consecutive days referred to in head (i) above or a period of seven consecutive days referred to in head (ii), or
 - (iv) as at that week that person establishes that he is a person with whom the child or qualifying young person ordinarily lives throughout at least one day in each week.

This paragraph is subject to the following qualifications.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a person shall not be regarded as having a child or qualifying young person living with him throughout any day or week unless he actually has that child or qualifying young person living with him throughout that day or week.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not apply for any day in any week to a person (“the carer”) with whom a child or qualifying young person—

- ^{F32}(a) is placed by a local authority in Great Britain in the carer’s home in accordance with the provisions of—
 - (i) the Placement of Children (Wales) Regulations 2007,

- (b) is placed by an authority in Northern Ireland, in the carer's home in accordance with the provisions of the Foster Placement (Children) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996^{M37} where the authority has a duty to provide accommodation and maintenance for the child under the Arrangements for Placement of Children (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996^{M38}.
- (4) Paragraph (1) does not apply in respect of any child or qualifying young person who—
- (a) is being looked after by a local authority in Great Britain or by an authority in Northern Ireland, and
- (b) has been placed for adoption by that authority in the home of a person proposing to adopt him, provided that the local authority or authority is making a payment in respect of either the child or qualifying young person's accommodation or maintenance or both, under [^{F38}section 22C(10)^{F39} ... of the 1989 Act, under regulation 33 of the Looked After Children (Scotland) Regulations][^{F40}2009,] under Article 27 of the 1995 Order [^{F41}or under section 81(13) of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014].

Child or qualifying young person undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody U.K.

17.—(1) For the purposes of paragraph 1(a) of Schedule 9 to SSCBA and paragraph 1(1)(a) of Schedule 9 to SSCB(NI)A, a child or qualifying young person is not regarded as undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody in any week unless—

- (a) in connection with a charge brought or intended to be brought against him in criminal proceedings at the conclusion of those proceedings, or
- (b) in the case of default of payment of a sum adjudged to be paid on conviction, in respect of such default, a court imposes a penalty upon him.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), paragraph 1(a) of Schedule 9 to SSCBA and paragraph 1(1)(a) of Schedule 9 to SSCB(NI)A do not apply to a child or qualifying young person in respect of any week in which that child or qualifying young person is liable to be detained in a hospital or similar institution in Great Britain or Northern Ireland as a person suffering from a mental disorder.

(3) Subject to paragraph (5), paragraph (2) does not apply where subsequent to the imposition of a penalty, the child or qualifying young person was removed to the hospital or similar institution while still liable to be detained as a result of that penalty and, in the case of a person who is liable to be detained in the hospital or similar institution by virtue of any provisions of the Mental Health Acts, a direction restricting his discharge has been given under any of those Acts and is still in force.

(4) In paragraph (3) a person who is liable to be detained by virtue of any provision of the Mental Health Acts shall be treated as if a direction restricting his discharge had been given under those Acts if he is to be so treated for the purposes of any of them.

(5) Where a certificate given by or on behalf of the Secretary of State shows the earliest date on which the child or qualifying young person would have been expected to be discharged from detention pursuant to the penalty if he had not been transferred to a hospital or similar institution, paragraph (3) shall not apply from the day following that date.

Persons temporarily absent from Great Britain U.K.

24.—(1) A person who is ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom and is temporarily absent from Great Britain shall be treated as being in Great Britain during the first—

- (a) 8 weeks of any period of absence; or
- (b) 12 weeks of any period of absence where that period of absence, or any extension to that period of absence, is in connection with—
 - (i) the treatment of his illness or physical or mental disability;
 - (ii) the treatment of his partner's illness or physical or mental disability;
 - (iii) the death of a person who, immediately prior to the date of death, was his partner;
 - (iv) the death, or the treatment of the illness or physical or mental disability, of a child or qualifying young person for whom either he or his partner is, or both of them are, responsible; or
 - (v) the death, or the treatment of the illness or physical or mental disability, of his or his partner's relative.

Here “relative” means brother, sister, forebear or lineal descendant.

(2) A person is temporarily absent from Great Britain if at the beginning of the period of absence his absence is unlikely to exceed 52 weeks.

Circumstances in which a child or qualifying young person treated as being in Northern Ireland U.K.

25.—(1) For the purposes of section 142(1) of SSCB(NI)A a child or qualifying young person who is temporarily absent from Northern Ireland shall be treated as being in Northern Ireland during—

- (a) the first 12 weeks of any period of absence;
- (b) any period during which the child or qualifying young person is absent by reason only of—
 - (i) his receiving full-time education by attendance at a [^{F53}school or college] in an EEA State or in Switzerland; or
 - (ii) his being engaged in an educational exchange or visit made with the written approval of the [^{F53}school or college] which he normally attends;
- (c) any period as is determined by the Commissioners during which the child or qualifying young person is absent for the specific purpose of being treated for an illness or physical or mental disability which commenced before his absence began; or
- (d) any period when he is in Great Britain.

(2) For the purposes of section 142(1) of SSCB(NI)A, where a child is born while his mother is absent from Northern Ireland in accordance with regulation 28, he shall be treated as being in Northern Ireland during such period of absence after his birth as is within 12 weeks of the date on which his mother became absent from Northern Ireland.

Polygamous marriages U.K.

35.—(1) For the purposes of Part 9 of SSCBA and Part 9 of SSCB(NI)A, a polygamous marriage is treated as having the same consequences as a monogamous marriage for any day, but only for any day, throughout which the polygamous marriage is in fact monogamous.

(2) In paragraph (1)—

- (a) “monogamous marriage” means a marriage celebrated under a law which does not permit polygamy;

Status: Point in time view as at 20/07/2018.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Child Benefit (General) Regulations 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) “polygamous marriage” means a marriage celebrated under a law which, as it applies to the particular ceremony and to the parties in question, permits polygamy;
- (c) a polygamous marriage is referred to as being in fact monogamous when neither party to it has any spouse additional to the other; and
- (d) the day on which a polygamous marriage is contracted, or on which it terminates for any reason, shall be treated as a day throughout which that marriage was in fact monogamous if at all times on that day after the time at which it was contracted, or as the case may be, before it terminated, it was in fact monogamous.

Right to child benefit of voluntary organisations U.K.

36.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4) and (5), for the purposes of section 147(6) of SSCBA and section 143(6) of SSCB(NI)A (right to child benefit of voluntary organisations), a voluntary organisation is regarded as the only person with whom a child is living for any week in which that child is—

- (a) living in premises which are provided or managed by the voluntary organisation, being premises which are required to be registered with a Government Department or local authority or which are otherwise regulated under or by virtue of any enactment relating to England and Wales, Scotland, or Northern Ireland; or
- (b) placed by the voluntary organisation in the home of any person in accordance with the provisions of the [^{F63}Fostering Services (England) Regulations 2011, the Fostering Services (Wales) Regulations 2003, the Looked After Children (Scotland) Regulations 2009] or the Foster Placement (Children) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996 ^{M44}.

(2) A voluntary organisation shall not be regarded as having ceased to have a child living with it by reason only of any temporary absence of that child—

- (a) if the child is undergoing medical or other treatment as an in-patient in a hospital, until such absence has lasted for more than 84 days; or
- (b) if the child is temporarily absent for any other reason, until such absence has lasted for more than 56 days.

(3) In calculating the period of 84 days for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), two or more distinct periods of temporary absence separated by one or more intervals each not exceeding 28 days shall be treated as a continuous period equal in duration to the total of such distinct periods and ending on the last day of the latter or last of such periods.

(4) A voluntary organisation shall not be regarded as a person with whom a child or qualifying young person is living in any week if in that week—

- (a) that individual is in residential accommodation in the circumstances prescribed in regulation 3; or
- (b) paragraph 1 of Schedule 9 to SSCBA or paragraph 1 of Schedule 9 to SSCB(NI)A applies to that individual.

(5) Where immediately before the week in which paragraph (1) applies to a child or qualifying young person, that individual was living with a person who was then entitled to child benefit in respect of him, paragraph (1) shall have effect in relation to that person as if the words “the only person” were omitted for so long as the child or qualifying young person is treated as continuing to live with that person by virtue of section 143(2) of SSCBA or section 139(2) of SSCB(NI)A.

(6) Section 143(1)(b) of SSCBA and section 139(1)(b) of SSCB(NI)A (person to be treated as responsible for a child in any week if he is contributing to the cost of providing for the qualifying individual at a weekly rate not less than the weekly rate of child benefit payable in respect of the child or qualifying young person for that week) and regulation 16(1) (child or qualifying young person in detention) shall not apply to a voluntary organisation).

Exception to rules preventing duplicate payment U.K.

38.—(1) A person is not disentitled to child benefit in respect of a child or qualifying young person by virtue of section 13(2) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 and section 11(2) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (persons not entitled to benefit for any week if benefit already paid for that week to another person, whether or not that other person was entitled to it) if in respect of that week—

- (a) the determining authority has decided that the Commissioners are entitled to recover the child benefit paid in respect of that child or qualifying young person from a person in consequence of his misrepresentation of, or his failure to disclose, any material fact and, where that determining authority is one from whose decision an appeal lies, the time limit for appealing has expired and no appeal has been made; or
- (b) the child benefit paid to the other person has been voluntarily repaid to, or recovered by, the Commissioners in a case where the determining authority has decided under section 9 or 10 of the Social Security Act 1998 ^{M47} or under Article 10 or 11 of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1998 ^{M48} either—
 - (i) that, while there was no entitlement to benefit, it is not recoverable, or
 - (ii) that there was no entitlement to benefit but has made no decision as to its recoverability.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make general provisions relating to child benefit, including provisions concerning residence, and consolidate the provisions contained in the Child Benefit (General) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/493) with amendments reflecting the extension of child benefit authorised by the Child Benefit Act 2005 (c. 6).

Part 1 contains regulation 1. This provides for citation, commencement and interpretation.

Part 2 (regulations 2 to 8) contains provisions specifying the age which a person must not have attained, and the conditions which must be satisfied, in order to be a qualifying young person.

Part 3 (regulations 9 to 11) contains provisions determining who is the person responsible for a child or qualifying young person for the purposes of entitlement to child benefit.

Part 4 (regulations 12 to 19) contains provisions relating to exclusions from entitlement to child benefit and priority between persons entitled to child benefit.

Part 5 contains regulation 20. This deals with entitlement to child benefit after the death of a child.

Part 6 (regulations 21 to 33) prescribe circumstances in which a person is to be treated as being, or as not being, in Great Britain or in Northern Ireland.

Part 7 (regulations 34 to 39) contains general and supplementary provisions. Regulation 34 prescribes circumstances in which persons are treated as residing together. Regulation 35 provides when a polygamous marriage is treated as having the same consequences as a monogamous marriage. Regulation 36 makes provisions relating to the right of voluntary organisations to child benefit. Regulation 37 disapplies section 13(1A) of Social Security Administration Act 1992 (c. 5) and section 11(1A) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (c. 8) (requirement to state national insurance number) where a child is treated as living with a voluntary organisation. Regulation 38 provides an exception to section 13(2) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 and section 11(2) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (person not entitled to child benefit for any week if benefit has already been paid to another person). Regulation 39 makes provision for use of electronic communications.

Part 8 contains regulation 40. This revokes provisions re-enacted by these Regulations.

A regulatory impact assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as it has no impact on businesses, charities or voluntary bodies. However, a full Regulatory Impact Assessment was produced for the draft indicative regulations that set out the Government's intended extensions to the scope of child benefit entitlement and which were published by HM Treasury on 10 January 2005. A copy of that Regulatory Impact Assessment has been placed in the Library of each House and is available on the website of HM Treasury at: www.hm-treasury.gov.uk/consultations_and_legislation/child_benefit/child_benefit.cfm.
