The Gambling Appeals Tribunal Fees Regulations 2006

Made - - - - 8th December 2006
Laid before Parliament 11th December 2006
Coming into force - - 1st January 2007

The Lord Chancellor, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 147 and 355(5) of the Gambling Act 2005(1), after consultation with the Secretary of State under subsection (1) of section 147, makes the following Regulations.

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Gambling Appeals Tribunal Fees Regulations 2006 and shall come into force on 1st January 2007.

(2) In these Regulations—

- (a) any reference to a section by number alone is a reference to the section so numbered in the Gambling Act 2005;
- (b) “appeal” means an appeal to the Tribunal under section 141 or section 337(1);
- (c) “appellant” means a person who brings an appeal before the Tribunal;
- (d) “fee” means the fee prescribed by these Regulations;
- (e) “Table” means to the table set out in Part 1 of the Schedule to these Regulations;
- (f) “Tribunal” means the Gambling Appeals Tribunal established under section 140(1).

Fee for bringing an appeal

2. Subject to regulations 3 and 4, the fee in relation to an appeal listed in column 1 of the Table is the amount set out opposite it in column 2 of the Table.

Exemptions, reductions, waivers and refunds

3.—(1) No fee is payable under these Regulations by an appellant who, at the time that the fee would otherwise become payable, is in receipt of any qualifying benefit.

- (2) The following are qualifying benefits for the purpose of paragraph (1)—
- (a) income support under the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992(2);
 - (b) working tax credit under the Tax Credits Act 2002(3), provided that—
 - (i) child tax credit is being paid to the appellant, or otherwise following a claim made jointly by the appellant and another person as a couple under section 3(3) of that Act(4); or
 - (ii) there is a disability element or severe disability element (or both) to the tax credit received by the appellant, and the gross annual income taken into account for the calculation of the working tax credit is £15,460 or less;

- (c) income-based jobseeker's allowance under the Jobseekers Act 1995(5);
- (d) guarantee credit under the State Pension Credit Act 2002(6).

4. Where the payment of any fee prescribed by these Regulations would, owing to the exceptional circumstances of the particular case, involve undue financial hardship to the appellant, the Tribunal may reduce or waive the fee.

- 5.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where a fee has been paid at a time—
- (a) when, under regulation 3, it was not payable, the fee shall be refunded;
 - (b) when the Tribunal, if it had been aware of all the circumstances, would have reduced the fee under regulation 4, the amount by which the fee would have been reduced shall be refunded; and
 - (c) when the Tribunal, if it had been aware of all the circumstances, would have waived the fee under regulation 4, the fee shall be refunded.

(2) No refund shall be made under paragraph (1) unless the appellant applies to the Tribunal in writing within 6 months of paying the fee.

(3) The Tribunal may extend the period of 6 months referred to in paragraph (2) if it considers that there is good reason for an application being made after the end of the period of 6 months.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide the fee that will be payable when bringing an appeal to the Gambling Appeals Tribunal (‘the Tribunal’) under section 141 of the Gambling Act 2005 (c. 19). The level of fee will depend on whether the licence is an operating licence or a personal licence and also on the type of operating or personal licence that is the subject matter of the appeal. An appeal can also be brought against an order by the Gambling Commission to void a bet. Appeals brought as regards an order to void a bet can be brought by a party to the bet or to any contract or other arrangement in relation to that bet.

The Regulations provide that no fee will be payable when a person is in receipt of a qualifying benefit listed in regulation 3. A fee can also be reduced or waived when the Tribunal is satisfied that undue hardship would be caused to the appellant. An appellant can apply to the Tribunal to have any fee paid by him refunded in accordance with the grounds stated in regulation 5.
