2006 No. 3327

The North Korea (United Nations Measures) (Overseas Territories) Order 2006

RESTRICTED GOODS, PROHIBITED LUXURY GOODS, ASSISTANCE AND TRAINING AND PROCUREMENT

Supply of restricted goods and prohibited luxury goods

4.—(1) Any person who, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Governor under this article or article 5 —

- (a) supplies or delivers;
- (b) agrees to supply or deliver; or
- (c) does any act calculated to promote the supply or delivery of,

restricted goods or prohibited luxury goods to any person or destination in North Korea shall be guilty of an offence under this Order, unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the goods in question were to be supplied or delivered to a person in North Korea.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1)(b) or (c) shall apply where the supply or delivery of the goods to the person concerned is authorised by a licence granted by the Governor under this article.

Exportation of restricted goods and prohibited luxury goods to North Korea

5.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted by the Governor under this article, restricted goods or prohibited luxury goods must not be exported from the Territory to any destination in North Korea or to any destination for the purpose of delivery, directly or indirectly, to or to the order of any person in North Korea.

(2) Any restricted goods or prohibited luxury goods which are exported or attempted to be exported shall be liable to forfeiture.

(3) Any person knowingly concerned in the exportation or attempted exportation of such goods shall be guilty of an offence under this Order.

(4) In any case where a person would, apart from this paragraph, be guilty of an offence under paragraph (3) above and of an offence under article 4(1), he shall not be guilty of the offence under paragraph (3) above.

Provision of assistance, advice or training related to military activities and provision, manufacture, maintenance or use of restricted goods

6. Any person who, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Governor under this article, directly or indirectly provides to any person, entity or body in, or for use in, North Korea any assistance, advice or training related to the provision, manufacture, maintenance or use of restricted goods shall be guilty of an offence under this Order, unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the assistance, advice or training in question was to be provided to a person, entity or body in, or for use in, North Korea.

Use of ships, aircraft and vehicles: restricted goods and prohibited luxury goods

7.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of article 4, and except under the authority of a licence granted by the Governor under article 4 or 5, no ship or aircraft to which this article applies, and no vehicle within the Territory, shall be used for the carriage of restricted goods or prohibited luxury goods if the carriage is, or forms part of, carriage from any place outside North Korea to any destination therein.

(2) This article applies to ships registered in the Territory, to aircraft so registered and to any other ship or aircraft that is for the time being chartered to any person who is —

- (a) a British citizen, a British overseas territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British subject, a British National (Overseas), or a British protected person and is ordinarily resident in the Territory; or
- (b) a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the Territory.

(3) If any ship, aircraft or vehicle is used in contravention of paragraph (1) then —

- (a) in the case of a ship registered in the Territory or any aircraft so registered, the owner and the master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or
- (b) in the case of any other ship or aircraft, the person to whom the ship or aircraft is for the time being chartered and, if he is such a person as is referred to in paragraph (2)(a) or (b), the master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or
- (c) in the case of a vehicle, the operator of the vehicle, shall be guilty of an offence under this Order, unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the carriage of the goods in question was, or formed part of, carriage from any place outside North Korea to any destination therein.

(4) Nothing in paragraph (1) shall apply where the supply or delivery or exportation from the Territory of the goods concerned to North Korea was authorised by a licence granted by the Governor under article 4 or 5.

(5) Nothing in this article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law prohibiting or restricting the use of ships, aircraft or vehicles.

Procurement of restricted goods from North Korea

8.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted by the Governor under this article, the procurement of restricted goods from North Korea is prohibited.

(2) Any restricted goods which are procured or attempted to be procured shall be liable to forfeiture.

(3) Any person knowingly concerned in the procurement or attempted procurement of such goods shall be guilty of an offence under this Order.
