2006 No. 349

The Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Consultation by Employers and Miscellaneous Amendment) Regulations 2006

Information provision and consultation

Requirement to provide information

11.—(1) In relation to a proposal to make a listed change affecting an occupational or personal pension scheme, each relevant employer to whom regulation 7(3) applies must provide information about the proposal to—

- (a) such of his employees as appear to him to be affected members of the scheme, and
- (b) any representatives of such members who are to be consulted under regulation 12(2)(a) or (3) or 13(2).

(2) The information provided under paragraph (1) must—

- (a) be in writing,
- (b) be provided before the start of consultation under regulation 12 or 13,
- (c) describe the listed change and state what effects it would (or would be likely to) have on the scheme and its members,
- (d) be accompanied by any relevant background information,
- (e) indicate the timescale on which measures giving effect to the change are proposed to be introduced, and
- (f) be given in such fashion and with such content as are appropriate to enable, in particular, representatives of affected members to consider, conduct a study of, and give their views to the employer on, the impact of the listed change on such members.
