

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE REGISTERED PENSION SCHEMES (MODIFICATION OF THE RULES OF EXISTING SCHEMES) REGULATIONS 2006

2006 No. 364

AND

THE REGISTERED PENSION SCHEMES (UNAUTHORISED PAYMENTS BY EXISTING SCHEMES) REGULATIONS 2006

2006 No. 365

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs and is laid before the House of Commons by Command of Her Majesty.

This memorandum contains information for the Select Committee on Statutory Instruments.

2. Description

- 2.1. This memorandum follows the Explanatory Memoranda for Statutory Instruments 2005/3448 to 3458 (laid before the House of Commons on 15 December 2005), Statutory Instruments 2006/129 to 138 (laid before that House on 26th January 2006) and 2006/206 to 212 (laid before that House on 2nd February).
- 2.2. These two instruments relate to, and supplement, Part 4 of the Finance Act 2004 as amended.
- 2.3. They deal with the rules of those pension schemes in existence on 5th April 2006 which become registered pension schemes on 6th April 2006

3. Matters of special interest to the Select Committee on Statutory Instruments

- 3.1. The Select Committee is respectfully referred to the Explanatory Memorandum for Statutory Instruments 2005/3448 to 3458 laid before the House of Commons on 15th December 2005.
- 3.2. The table annexed to this memorandum reflects developments since the 15th December 2005 to the full list of Instruments that are expected to be laid in time for the coming into force of Part 4 of the Finance Act 2004 on 6th April 2006. These Statutory Instruments form the fourth tranche of the Regulations to be laid. They will have effect from 6th April 2006.
- 3.3. Further instruments will follow in later in the week.
- 3.4. An explanation of each instrument follows:

4. Legislative Background

- 4.1. Regulations under paragraph 3 of Schedule 36 to the Finance Act 2004 may make provision modifying the rules of existing schemes in respect of the transitional period for that scheme.
- 4.2. The transitional period (which is set out in paragraph 3(2) of the Schedule) was originally to have been the period beginning with 6th April 2006 and ending on the earlier of 5th April 2009 or the date upon which the rules of the scheme were first amended on or after 6th April 2006. However paragraph 3(2) was amended by paragraph 51 of Schedule 10 to the Finance Act 2005 so as to provide that modifications under the paragraph should continue to have effect until—

- the first date after 5th April 2006 on which amendments of the rules of the pension scheme which state that the modifications no longer apply to it take effect; or
- the end of the tax-year 2010-11 or such later date as the Board of Inland Revenue may by regulations prescribe.

4.3. The Regulations under paragraph 3 of Schedule 36 (“the Modification Regulations”) are supplemented by the Registered Pension Schemes (Unauthorised Payments by Existing Schemes) Regulations 2006 (“the Unauthorised Payments Regulations”).

5. Extent

5.1. These instruments apply throughout the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

6.1. Both of these instruments are subject to annulment. Neither amends primary legislation. Accordingly no statement of compatibility with the European Convention on Human Rights is required.

7. Policy Background

7.1. From 6th April 2006, a new unified pensions tax regime will replace the numerous existing regimes. The new regime will contain two key controls on tax relief for pension savings, a lifetime allowance and an annual allowance, which will replace the plethora of controls currently in existence.

7.2. The Modification Regulations operate so as to treat a number of features of the existing taxation regime as being automatically imported into the rules of schemes which are in existence on 5th April 2006 and which become subject to the regime for registered pensions schemes on 6th April 2006 by virtue of paragraph 1 of Schedule 36 to the Finance Act 2004. Their principal effect is to preserve the status quo in relation to the application of rules which expressly or by necessary implication limited benefits, liabilities or entitlement to make contributions.

7.3. Without the modifications, schemes which had relied upon limits laid down (for example) in Part 14 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 to restrict such benefits, liabilities or entitlement may have found themselves having difficulty reconciling competing pressures for funds. Therefore, where a scheme would (but for the Regulations) have had to make a payment in excess of a limit which applied before 6th April 2006, the trustees are instead given a discretion to make such payments. Where they do exercise that discretion the payments so made are, by virtue of the Unauthorised Payments Regulations, not scheme chargeable payments (under the new taxation regime for pensions) to the extent that they are referable to entitlement accrued, or contributions paid, prior to 6th April 2006. Similar payments made by schemes to which the Modification Regulations do not apply, or to which they have ceased to apply, are treated in the same way.

8. Impact

- 8.1. The impact of these regulations is contained within the Simplifying the taxation of pensions Regulatory Impact Assessment and Appendix which can be found at www.hmrc.gov.uk/ria/simplifying-pensions.pdf and www.hmrc.gov.uk/ria/simplifying-pensions-appendix.pdf.

9. Contact

- 9.1. Kevin Golightly at HM Revenue & Customs (tel: 020 7147 2825 or e-mail: Kevin.Golightly@hmrc.gsi.gov.uk) can answer any queries regarding the instrument.
