(Consequential Provisions) Order 2006

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Taxation of Judicial Pensions (Consequential Provisions) Order 2006 and shall come into force on 6th April 2006.

“the 1959 Act” means the County Courts Act (Northern Ireland) 1959(4).

Amendments of the 1993 Act

3.—(1) Section 3 of the 1993 Act (the appropriate annual rate) is amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (3)—

(a) in paragraph (a)(i) (definition of “pensionable pay”) omit “, within the meaning of section 590C(1) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988(5) (earnings cap),”;

(b) in paragraph (b) (definition of “pension-capped salary”) for the words from “, within the” to “assessment” substitute “does not exceed the permitted maximum for the tax year”.

(3) After subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) In subsection (3)(b) above “the permitted maximum” means—

(a) in relation to the tax year 2005-06 and any earlier tax year, the permitted maximum within the meaning of section 590C(1) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (earnings cap) as it had effect for the tax year, and

(b) in relation to the tax year 2006-07 and any later tax year, the amount arrived at under subsection (3B) below.

(3B) The permitted maximum for the tax year 2006-07 and any later tax year is the permitted maximum for the previous tax year increased (if there is a relevant increase in the retail prices index for the tax year) by the appropriate percentage for the tax year.

(3D) And the appropriate percentage for the tax year is the same percentage as the percentage increase in the retail prices index.

(3E) But if the result of the application of subsection (3B) above in relation to a tax year would not be a multiple of £600, the permitted maximum for that tax year is what it would be apart from this subsection rounded up to the nearest amount which is such a multiple.”.
