

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

If a person is convicted of an offence that is mentioned in section 76(3) of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 the court when sentencing or otherwise dealing with the person may also make a financial reporting order in respect of him. This Order amends section 76(3) to add offences to it.