

2007 No. 2921

EDUCATION, ENGLAND

The Toot Hill School (School Day and School Year Regulations)
Order 2007

Made	- - - -	8th October 2007
Laid before Parliament		15th October 2007
Coming into force	- -	1st December 2007

The governing body of the Toot Hill School(a) (“the School”), a qualifying body for the purposes of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of the Education Act 2002(b) (“the Act”) have, in accordance with section 4(2) of the Act, consulted the local education authority and such persons as appear to them to be appropriate, including the parents of the registered pupils at the School and the staff working at the School.

It is the opinion of the Secretary of State pursuant to section 1(1)(a) of the Act, having regard to the matters set out in section 1(2), that the implementation by the governing body of the School of the provisions of this Order may contribute to the raising of educational standards in England.

In exercise of the powers conferred on the Secretary of State by section 2(1) of the Act, the Secretary of State for Children, Schools and Families, on the application of the governing body of the School, makes the following Order:

Jim Knight
Minister of State
Department for Children, Schools and Families

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made under section 2 of the Education Act 2002. Article 2 provides for the number of school sessions required at Toot Hill School to be reduced from 380 to 378 in the school years 2007-2008, 2008-2009 and 2009-2010 in order to facilitate the governing body's innovative project of restructuring the school, increasing the length of the learning week and introducing a new tiering structure for pupils.

Article 3 specifies that the Order has effect up to and including 31st August 2010.
