The Army Terms of Service Regulations 2007

Versatile engagement

6. A person enlisted on a versatile engagement who is not selected for further service under regulation 5(3) or (5) will be given notice to that effect at least 12 months before his service is otherwise due to end and may apply in writing to the competent military authority to be continued in service for such further period, not exceeding 2 years from the date his service would otherwise end, as the competent military authority decides.
